ART WALK

July
8
5 to 8 p.m.

ASTORIA — The first Second Saturday Art Walk of the summer takes place 5 to 8 p.m. July 8. Stroll into galleries, snag refreshments, chat with artists and get more acquainted with downtown Astoria. (Some locations open and close earlier or later.)

1. Astoria Art Loft

106 Third St.

Featuring Brigette Willse's paintings, sculpture and steampunk jewelry in "Beaver Tales," a statewide project honoring beavers. Sales of artwork will benefit several wetlands and watershed conservancies. Reception: 2 to 5 p.m. (earlier than downtown Astoria galleries). Located above Dots 'N Doodles.

2. WineKraft

80 10th St. (Pier 11)

WineKraft is now featuring work from six local artists, as well as live music with Swingcats of Astoria starting at 7 p.m. Sip wine, eat and enjoy the arts. WineKraft is the perfect location for you to wrap up your art walking.

3. KALA @ Hipfish

1017 Marine Drive

KALA features new works by Sid Deluca, "Torn Apart"; the collage series represents the many fractures between ourselves and our worlds, both external and internal, both present and in memory. Landscape photography, and paintings by Kim Rose Adams, paintings by Annie Eskelin, Bill Atwood, Rebecca Rubens and Rene Rowe, collage by Pooka Rice and Joi Smith. Live performance at 7 p.m. by Guitar and Sampling artist Raymond Martin of the Stunning Ray Guns.

4. AVA Writer-in-Residence

80 11th St. (above Edison Fish Market)

The team of Michael and Momo Meow will exhibit artwork and read from their illustrated young adult novel centered around technology, neglect and fantasy. The reading is scheduled for 7 p.m.

5. Astoria Vintage Hardware

1162 Marine Drive

Preservation Farm, this month's featured Pop-Up at Vintage Hardware, is an acre market garden in Knappa, using sustainable practices to grow heirloom vegetables. Every Saturday, Preservation Farm will be stocking the shop with fresh produce such as summer squash, peas, kale, cabbage and more. Come meet and greet this lovely couple.

6. Imogen Gallery

240 11th St.

We welcome back Cynthia Lahti, who recently finished a residency at Sitka Center for Art and Ecology. Lahti brings a fresh series of drawings depicting places known to her since childhood — places of ancestors to create delicate and subtle compositions of our mystical coastal region. The show will be on exhibit through Tuesday, Aug. 8.

7. Cargo

240 11th St.

Summer is here. Lots of summer clothing, fiction, kitchenware, beach blankets and more.

8. The Fox and The Fawn

1008 Commercial St.

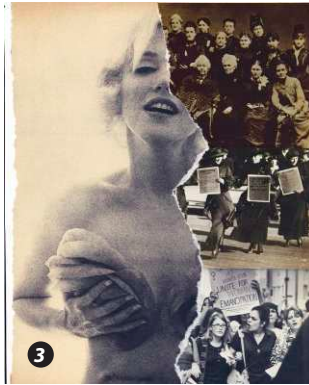

The Fox and the Fawn, an upscale, resale boutique, features a variety of reasonably priced new and gently worn clothing. Ayla DeCoraggio, the shop's owner, can provide style advice guaranteed to make you shine. Come enjoy the festivities while learning about our charity-of-the-month.

9. Forsythea Home & Garden Arts

1124 Commercial St.

Zemula Fleming continues through July at Forsythea. There are many fabulous pieces to choose from, so stop by and peruse her luminescent ladies.

Jewelry

1150 Commercial St.

Creating unique and custom-designed jewelry. Create something new with your own gemstones or find out how Holly can be your personal diamond shopper in Antwerp Belgium, the diamond capital of the world.

11. RiverSea Gallery

1160 Commercial St.

On the Patio features paintings in encaustic on panel and oil on paper often inspired by landscape created by Joan Stuart Ross, a noted artist from Seattle and Willapa Bay. Steve Belz, head of the ceramics department at Peninsula College in Port Angeles, Washington, presents mixed-media sculpture in the Alcove, combining elements of ceramics, carved wood and steel.

12. Adagio

1174 Commercial St.

We're celebrating July with wonderful offers! For the entire month all furnishings and Japanese woodblock prints are 40 percent off, and all Comfy brand clothing is 25 percent off. Throughout the summer, our sales include items priced $100 and up ranging from 10 to 30 percent off. Stop by and celebrate with us!

13. The Art Stall

1268 Commercial St.

We have 24 artists displaying their works now and still growing. Come check out the new art and have some refreshments.

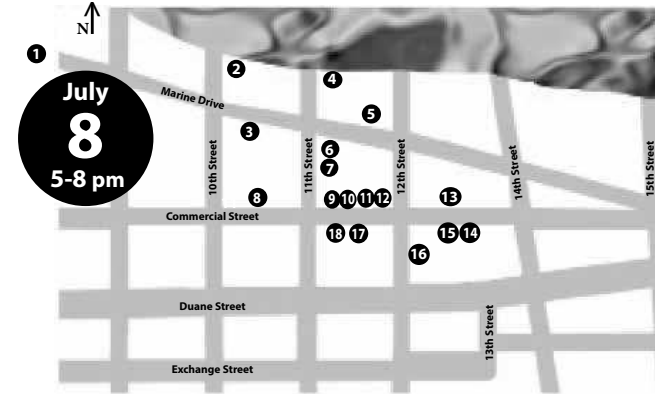

14. Old Town Framing Company

1287 Commercial St.

Welcome John Wecker. Most paintings in this exhibit are oil on polymeric film affixed to styrofoam: a home insulation material. "It is fun to experiment with subject matter, composition and materials. Lately I've been thinking more about what goes into in a successful abstract painting, and I'd like to do more with that," Wecker said.

15. Tempo Gallery

1271 Commercial St.

July will feature new paintings by local artists Vicki Baker and Phyllis Taylor. Taylor's work will feature boats and fishing folk in watercolor and acrylics. Baker will be showing small abstracts and other new paintings. Stop by during Art Walk to see their new work and visit with the artists.

16. Lucy's Books

348 12th St.

Lucy's Books welcomes local author Melissa Eskue Ousley for a book signing of her two newest titles, "Sunset Empire," a young adult fantasy set in Astoria, and "Pitcher Plant," a paranormal thriller set in Seaside.
