Tickets on sale for Cottage & Garden tour and raffle

CANNON BEACH — Tickets are on sale for Cannon Beach History Center & Museum's annual Cottage & Garden Tour. In September, the museum will open the doors of more than ten homes as part of this annual fundraiser.

The tour will take place the weekend of Friday, Sept. 8, and includes a series of fun events.

Everything starts Friday night with a concert and reception at the Cannon Beach Community Hall (207 North Spruce St.).

Kelsey Mousley & The Next Right Thing will ease attendees into a busy weekend of home tours, wine tastings, art exhibits, presentations and more live music. Tickets to this event are $15.

For more than a decade, the History Center & Museum has welcomed visitors from the Pacific Northwest and beyond to tour vintage homes, historic inns and architectural wonders of this coastal town.

The tour of homes and gardens will take place Saturday, Sept. 9, and is a one-day event. Start the day with a lecture on the history of Cannon Beach from Doug Deur at the Community Hall, followed by the tour.

Luncheon and lecture tickets are $25. For the first time, tour-goers are invited to explore the north end of Cannon Beach. Tickets for the home and garden tour are $35.

Saturday will feature a concert and reception at the community hall with local favorite Thistle & Rose. The reception is historically overflowing with beer from Fort George Brewery and Buoy Beer, wine from the Nehalem Bay Winery, and tasty treats, organizers said. This event is included in the cost of a home and garden tour ticket.

The final event is an English-style garden tea at the community hall Sunday, Sept.

Fall raffle

Enjoy local art, historic photographs or gift certificates from local shops? How about supporting a local nonprofit? Then take note of the History Center & Museum's annual fall raffle, part of the Cottage & Garden Tour.

The drawing will take place Saturday, Sept. 9, during the Maggie & the Cats concert from 6 to 8 p.m.

"You do not have to be present to win, but you might want to anyway," the museum said in a release.

The raffle drawing will take place at the Saturday night concert.

Beautiful pieces will be available. "The shining star will be a one-of-kind piece donated by Jim Kingwell, of Icefire Glassworks in Cannon Beach," the museum said. "The sculpture would be a beautiful addition to any home, but would also make a fantastic garden feature."

In addition, Jeffrey Hull Gallery has donated a print of "Carol's Geraniums."

Tickets are $5 each and available at the museum or through the online gift shop.
