'To Kill a Mockingbird' takes the stage in Tillamook

TILLAMOOK — Tickets are on sale for the Tillamook Association for the Performing Arts' production of "To Kill A Mockingbird," directed by Richard A. Coon and based on the novel by Harper Lee. The stage version of this famous story opens Friday, July 14, in Tillamook.

A gala will be held opening night; every ticket purchased includes complimentary hors d'oeuvres and a beverage of choice.

It's 1935 in Maycomb, Alabama. Children play in the street. Wild dogs run loose. Mockingbirds sing. And Tom Robinson fights for his life.

"This great American classic was a must read for most students in the (19)50s and 60s, and is told through the eyes of Jean Louise Finch (Scout, as an adult) as she remembers those fun, wondrous and tumultuous days," organizers wrote.

"To Kill A Mockingbird" opens runs through Sunday, July 30. The association's Barn Community Playhouse is located at 1204 Ivy St.,
