Cannon Beach Arts Association celebrates 30th anniversary with food, wine, music

CANNON BEACH — The Cannon Beach Arts Association is celebrating its 30th anniversary 6 to 9 p.m. Saturday, July 22, at the Cannon Beach Gallery (1064 S. Hemlock St.).

“We will have great food, wine and live music for the special fundraiser event,” organizers said in a release.

This year, the gallery is hosting crowd favorite “12X12” artist invitational show, where the best artists on the North Coast create special art for the organization’s fundraiser.

Artists have been working for the past month to create striking works of art on 12-inch-square birch panels. Each board will have a unique creation made specially for this event and will be priced at $150.

Proceeds from the show support programs such as the association’s children’s art camp, weekly workshop program, artist grants and high school scholarship program.

More than 80 artists are participating this year, and people are already asking to reserve works (which the association can’t do).

“The buzz around the show is exciting,” organizers said. “We expect well over 100 people to attend the celebration, which will be held inside the gallery and also on our back patio.”

Anyone interested in volunteering at the event can visit the gallery; the association’s director or a docent will be happy to help.

PORTLAND INDIE ROCKERS INVADE MERRY TIME

ASTORIA — Three indie rock bands — Last Giant, Rllrbll and Down Gown — will play a live show at the Merry Time Bar and Grill (995 Marine Drive) 9:30 p.m. Saturday, July 22.

No cover; attendees must be 21 and older, with a valid ID, to enter. Doors open at 9 p.m.

Last Giant delivers “bone-rumbling rock with a 70s roll,” according to press materials. Their second album, “Memory of the World,” was released in April 2017.

Rllrbll has released 10 full-lengths in the last decade, more than a dozen EPs and singles, plus compilations. They tour the western U.S. regularly.

Down Gown released its self-titled debut album in January 2017. Veterans of Portland’s vibrant music community from the classic 1990s through the expansive 2000s, Down Gown rotates between delicate phrasing, unusual chord structures and thunderous blasts of rock.

The Merry Time has a full bar, homemade food, pinball and pool.

For more information, contact Terry Robinett at merrytimebar@gmail.com or 503-867-4516.
