

POINT of view

Question: What is your favorite local landmark?

"Downtown. I think people have a great respect for the age of the buildings. I don't have a favorite because they all have different architecture. They're all unique in their own ways."

Betsy Lennon, Astoria

"The Astoria Column because of the amazing overview of the lay of the land."

Jan Simmons, Eugene

"The Riverwalk. It's good for taking pictures."

Woman robs Naselle bank

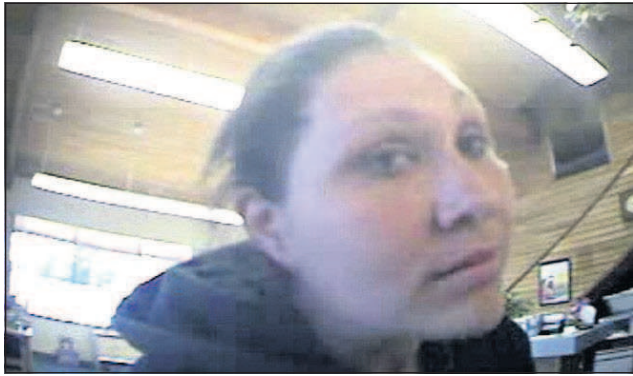

EO Media Group

NASELLE, Wash. — A woman robbed the Naselle branch of Bank of the Pacific on Monday afternoon and assaulted two tellers before making off on foot with an undisclosed amount of cash, the Pacific County Sheriff's Office said.

"Tons of leads, none positive but I'm confident one will lead us to the suspect," Sheriff Scott Johnson said.

The robber entered the branch at 309 Knappton Road at about 3:50 p.m. and attempted to distract employees while passing a robbery note to a teller, the Sheriff's Office said.

"The subject climbed over a barrier and forcefully attempted to gain access to cash while physically assaulting two tellers," according to the Sheriff's Office. "The female suspect is described as heavy set, dark hair in a bun, wearing a blue shirt, black sweater, baggy pants, and was approximately 30-35 years old. The suspect left the bank on foot with an undisclosed amount of cash."

The Naselle bank reopened this morning. "We appreciate the concern and support shown to our Naselle branch staff members since yesterday's event," Eric Bjella, bank vice president and marketing manager, said Tuesday. "We are very grateful that everyone is safe and that no one was seriously physically harmed."

The bank is offering a $5,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the suspect. People can share tips with Lt. Jim Bergstrom at 360-875-9397 or through 911.

Washington state reviews anti-pot message aimed at Latino youth

Associated Press

YAKIMA, Wash. — The Washington Department of Health is apologizing after some people were offended by anti-marijuana messaging aimed at Latino youth in the Yakima area.

The public health campaign includes advertisements and at least one billboard that says, "We don't need pot to have fun," and "We're Hispanics ... We're cool by default."

Health Department spokeswoman Julie Graham says it's clear from the reaction on social media that some people were offended. The department said on its Twitter feed Tuesday that it will remove the billboard.

ON THE RECORD

Harassment

At 8:48 a.m. Saturday, Aaron Emanuel Ferguson, 39, of Salem, was arrested by the Clatsop County Sheriff's Office on the 91000 block of Akerstedt Road and charged with first-degree burglary, harassment, first-degree criminal trespass and resisting arrest. The owner of the home allegedly woke up to find Ferguson sleeping naked in a guest bedroom. Ferguson then allegedly physically harassed the home owner and resisted deputies before being arrested.
