FULTANO'S HISTORY

Astoria Fultano's first opened in March of 1978, known as Pizza Vendor, owned and operated by Bob and Jeanette Fulton and was renamed Mr. Fultano's Pizza a couple of years later.

Robert and Cheryl Fulton purchased the business in 1982. They owned and operated Fultano's until it was sold to Mark Cary in 1998. In 2003, Fultano's expanded by adding the party and game room.

To this day, Mark continues to operate Fultano's staying true to their commitment, "Our family serving your family the best pizza in town!"

Edward Jones is now the nation's largest investment firm by number of offices, with 12,000 offices in 50 states, 600 offices in Canada and over 14,000 registered representatives. Edward Jones was founded by Edward D. Jones, Sr. in 1922 as a conservative St. Louis investment firm.

Jones' motto is "Making Sense of Investing." The offices are usually manned by one representative in towns between 10 and 30,000 population. The company has a conservative philosophy; its representatives live in the communities they service, and as local representative Matt Nye says, "I offer personal perspective on your financial future."

SHALLON WINERY

Mr. "Reasonable"
(Paul van der Veldt)

- Bringing in 77,000 guests in 37 years, one quarter of whom are return customers.
- One of the smallest wineries in the nation, yet the only fully operating winery in 7,000 square miles at this western edge of the continent. An actual "brick-and-mortar" winery.
- Producing only unique and unusual wines, such as Wild Blackberry and Chocolate and the only whey wines in the world.
- 600 gallons of free wine tasting to guests in 37 years.

Alice Carlson started the business in 1977, selling wholesale to the local garden centers. It was then called Tucker Valley Nursery, later changing it to Carlson Farms. Ken came in about 1985. In 1996, we started making Christmas wreaths, mostly for fund-raisers and the wholesale market. In 1999, we changed to retail, and in 2006, we moved to our new location at 90461 Hwy 202.
