

REGATTA QUEEN'S CORONATION

6 P.M. ■ FREE ($10 SUGGESTED DONATION) ■ LIBERTY THEATER
SPONSORED BY WARRENTON BUSINESS ASSOCIATION

Since the beginning of the Regatta Festival, there has been a Regatta Queen to serve as a delegate for the festivities. One lucky young woman will be chosen Wednesday at the coronation ceremony to bear the crown. Last year, Aubrey McMahan was selected as the 2016 Queen and will hand down her title to one of the court. McMahan, along with four princesses, has been traveling around to parades and other events all year as dignitaries of the festival. The coronation also gives large scholarships to the court in hopes of helping the local young women to pursue higher education. Come watch the ceremony 6 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 9, at the Liberty Theater.

QUEEN

AUBREY MCMAHAN

Aubrey McMahan is the daughter of Boaz and Kaia McMahan and Nathan and Angela Messick. She is a junior at Knappa High School, where she plays varsity basketball and is engaged in the leadership program. She is also passionate about social programs, which has led her to be the main anti-bullying advocate in the school and volunteers for school blood drives. She is involved in Talent Search through Clatsop Community College and has attended three Oregon Writing Festivals, which are held at Portland State University. She was also awarded an honorable mention in the poetry unit of the Scholastic Art and Writing Competition. She has been singing since she was young and often sings the National Anthem at school sporting events. Aubrey plans to attend Portland Community College for two years and get a transfer degree to the University of Oregon to earn a doctorate in forensic psychology.
