Buck hired at Clatsop Community Bank

The Daily Astorian

SEASIDE — Clatsop Community Bank has hired of Rebecca Buck as vice president and business development officer.

"Ours is a business built on relationships, and many of those relationships are initiated by our business development officers," President and CEO Joe Schulte said in a release. "We're excited to bring Becky on board and we're confident that her banking background and her experience living and working in Clatsop County will be an asset to our customers."

Buck has worked in the banking industry for about 30 years, and has been a commercial lender for almost 25 years. She attended the Western Banking Commercial Lending School and the National Institute of Banking. She will be based in the Seaside office.

U.S. Bank donation supports cultural activities for kids

The Daily Astorian

U.S. Bank gave a $3,500 grant to The Way to Wellville's Clatsop Kids Go program for cultural and educational activities. The in-school program is designed to help kids develop healthy behaviors and positive attitudes around physical activity, nutrition and well-being.

"Clatsop Kids Go fits perfectly with our foundation objectives to support and promote healthy activities for our Clatsop County youth," U.S. Bank Regional President Kevin LaCoste said.

The funds will be used to hire a cultural event coordinator and for field trips. Last year, students in the program visited the Seaside Museum and Fort Clatsop, where they enjoyed a presentation by Roberta Basch on Native American customs.

Keep George Happy: Join TLC.

Tired of instability at your bank? So is George. How can he hang with Abraham, Ben, and Alexander when banks keep changing hands and charging exorbitant fees?

Try TLC. Like all credit unions, we're a not-for-profit financial cooperative, owned by our members. So when you join TLC, you're not just a customer, you're a member/owner. That makes George smile.

Call us, or visit us at any of our five branches along the Oregon Coast, and discover the credit union difference!
