my coaches taught me quickly the main rules and techniques. Basketball became one of my favorite sports, after a while. We even almost won a game.

I made a couple German dishes over the time for the Hunts, but one I remember more because I remember making it as a child. We call it Weckmann, a traditional German bread made for St. Martin's Day. I made it one evening, together with Grace for church. In the end, it looked a little interesting because I forgot the eggs, but it still tasted fine.

Wintertime

The winter brought the first snow. I grew up in the black forest, an area in Germany where it snows a lot. The people got so used to it that you never get a day off because of snow. So I was really surprised and happy when we had a snow day. That was my first snow day in my entire life.

Pretty soon it was Christmas and we started decorating. I couldn't stop looking at all the little things that appeared out of the basement. In addition we went to cut our own Christmas tree.

Soon Christmas evening arrived. I had spent the last days shopping for presents for everyone. Furthermore I was very excited to see if they would like them. In Germany, all presents get opened on Nov. 24. To wait until Christmas morning was therefore hard for me.

I also must admit, that I was even more surprised and happier than usual about my presents. But how could you not, if one of them is a clown's nose?

One morning, Grandpa informed us that the first calf was born. The calves were so cute and I really wanted to see how one was born. I found a cow that looked like it would give birth pretty soon. There I stood with binoculars the whole day at the window. After hours, I finally gave up. The next day there was a new calf jumping around in the field.

Spring

With spring came track season. I had the feeling after basketball and cross country, that I was never in better shape.

Everything started to turn into a bright green. Easter flew by and soon school was out.

We did a lot on school vacation. We went camping in the mountains. We drove to Eastern Washington and worked with the new heifers. The year went by so fast and suddenly it was time to go home.

Thanks to the Hunt family and their constant support, my English improved very quickly. They corrected my grammar and helped me in school. They were there for me when I needed them. Somewhere along the way, family Hunt had become my family and Lindsay and Grace became my real sisters.

Even though it rained a lot, and sports practice was hard and I missed Germany, Washington state became a second home for me. At the end of the year, I couldn't believe that it was already over. Time traveled so fast, so I was really happy that my parents offered that my host family could come back to Germany and visit us for a while.

Still, saying goodbye to all the nice people who I met during this year was hard. I was glad that my friends and teachers were able to help me improve my English skills.

Also I learned so much about the country, where I was born. When we traveled to Germany, it was like I never left.

View of the world

I've got a complete new view of the world. I learned so much in this year. It is great to have the chance to get to know other cultures. Also this year helped me to gain more independence.

After two great weeks in Germany together with my host family, it was time to say goodbye. On the way to the airport I remembered again all the good moments that my host family and I shared. One thing is certain, I will come back.

This year was one of the best experiences of my life. I think the exchange programs for refusing me, so that I could meet such an amazing family, go to such a great school and live in such a nice community.

When you ever have the chance to do an exchange in another country, do it! It will be the best experience of your life.

Born in California, Lia Willenbrock lives in Höchenschwand, Germany. She recently returned to Germany after living with the Hunt family in Rosburg, Wash., and attending Naselle for one year.
