Sofia Ward lends a hand in the dish room at the Seaside Brewing Co. The service industry is a vital component of many local economies, especially in summer months when tourists visit the area.

Patrick Leary is part of a group of young people in Cannon Beach who bike 15 to 20 miles a day in the community providing information to visitors and monitoring parking. "I love helping people, and this is a job where I get to interact with people and help the community," he said.

Cannon Beach Information Aide Patrick Leary writes a parking violation citation during a recent bike patrol in the community. Leary said writing citations was just one small part of a job that primarily involves helping people in the community. "One of our most important jobs is being of assistance to the people of Cannon Beach and the police department," he said.
