

Flute, clarinet spotlighted in classical concert

RAYMOND, WASH. — A free classical music concert will take place 2 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 10, at the historic Raymond Theatre (323 Third St.).

The show, presented by Sunday Afternoon Live and the Ladies Musical Club of Seattle, features two winners from the Club's 2017 Frances Walton Competition: Yasmina Spiegelberg, on clarinet, and Hannah Leffler, on flute.

Each year, the Ladies Musical Club selects four winners from among musicians ages 20 to 35. Two winners showcase their talents in Eastern Washington and two in Western Washington, offering free classical music concerts, plus school visits in communities that have limited access to live classical music.

The 2017 winners also will be featured on Classical KING FM 98.1 NW Focus Live 8 p.m. Sept. 8 and Sept. 15.

Switzerland-born Yasmina Spiegelberg, a clarinetist from Los Angeles, is currently working toward a graduate certificate in performance of music at the University of Southern California's Thornton School of Music.

Hannah Leffler, flute, from Denton, Texas, is working toward a doctor of musical arts at the University of North Texas. She is one

Hall-of-Famer saxophonist plays Coaster Theatre

CANNON BEACH — Billboard charting artist Patrick Lamb returns to the Coaster Theatre Playhouse 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 9, for a fabulous end-of-summer celebration.

Lamb's last three singles have ranked top five nationally on the Billboard Charts. He was recently inducted, as one of the youngest members, into the Oregon Music Hall of Fame.

He has been awarded three Muddy Awards by the Cascade Blues Association, the Hero Award by Children's Cancer Association, the Yolanda Denis King Award by JW Matt Hennessey and first Baptist Church, and has been given the Independent Spirit Award by his own city of Portland.

In addition, he has regularly toured the world, performing with Smokey Robinson, Esperanza Spalding, Gino Vannelli, Bobby Caldwell, Jeff Lorber Fusion, Smokey Robinson, as well as rock n' rollers like Tommy Thayer (lead guitarist of KISS), Alice Cooper and Robby Krieger (lead guitarist for The Doors).

From The White House, to the Kennedy Center, to the Blue Notes, Lamb is now a breakout solo artist.

Tickets can be purchased at coastertheatre.com, at the Coaster Theatre box office, or by calling 503-436-1242.

Christmas concert rehearsals kick off

SOUTH BEND, WASH. — The Willapa Harbor Chorale begins rehearsals for its 2017 Christmas concert Monday, Sept. 11, in the Raymond High School band room. The regular two-hour Monday evening rehearsals begin at 7 p.m.

The non-audition chorale welcomes all singers as it prepares for its 48th annual Christmas concert. Chorale Director Rick Gauger encourages members to arrive a few minutes early for the first rehearsal, when music will be distributed and necessary registration completed.

The chorale includes voices from South Bend, Raymond, Willapa Valley, Westport, Montesano and Central Park.

For more information, contact Gauger (360-942-2661) or choir members.
