

2nd Saturday

ART WALK

Sept. 9
5 to 8 p.m.

ASTORIA — The summer's final Second Saturday Astoria Art Walk — held 5 to 8 p.m. Sept. 9 — brings another opportunity to enjoy art, mingle with artists and art lovers and savor refreshments in downtown galleries. (Some locations open and close earlier or later.)

1. Astoria Art Loft 106 Third St.

We promise whimsy, playfulness and fun. Featured artists are Diana Poorman and Jack Allen. Their vibrant paintings include Pacific and Atlantic coastal scenes of bygone times, portraits and jigsaw puzzles. Also, see painters create scenes on silk with Susan Supola. Our opening is earlier: 1 to 5 p.m., 106 3rd St., above Dots 'N Doodles.

2. WineKraft 80 10th St. (Pier 11)

WineKraft is featuring work from six local artists, as well as music starting at 7 p.m. with Two Crows Joy, a duo with original Americana songs. Sip wine, eat and enjoy the arts. WineKraft is the perfect location to wrap up your art walking.

3. AVA Artists-in-Residence 80 11th St. (above Coldwater Skate & Surf Shop)

Roger Hayes, will be showing both completed works and works-in-progress. Hayes is a multimedia artist who works with many art mediums. Brenda Harper, AVA member and multimedia artist from Astoria, is showing Imaginary Architecture in the AVA Pop-Up Space. An exhibition of drawings, photos and video reflects the idea of places, buildings and land as blank slates or shells, rather than pieces of property with commercial value.

4. Astoria Vintage Hardware 1162 Marine Drive

Beach House Teas are passionate about creating delicious teas using only the finest organic or wild harvested ingredients — that's why they're Vintage Hardware's September pop-up shop. Beach House Teas begins by sourcing ingredients from quality local farms and distributors, then hand-mix all their original blends in small batches on the Long Beach Peninsula, capturing the beautiful aromas and flavors of the Pacific Northwest.
