Brew Cup moves to Seventh Street

The Daily Astorian

The 16th-annual Pacific Northwest Brew Cup, which runs Friday to Sunday, will relocate to Seventh Street along the Astoria Riverwalk, adjacent to Buoy Beer Co.

The festival features more than three dozen craft beers poured into pint glasses by Carruthers sponsored Restaurant.

Astoria eateries Finni's Fine Foods, Monte Alban Mexican, The Good Bowl and Hot Box BBQ will serve on site. Entertainment includes 16 bands and hula-hooping, giant bubbles and other children's activities from Purple Cow Toys.

The festival is a fundraiser for the Astoria Downtown Historical District Association, which will debut its Shop Local, Shop Plaid campaign, aimed at getting shoppers to think of downtown

The event had been held near the Barbey Maritime Center in the past.

College, Red Cross hold classes on emergency preparedness

The Daily Astorian

Clatsop Community College and the American Red Cross are partnering to hold two classes on establishing shelters.

"Comprehensive Shelter Training" is a 20-hour series of classes spanning the next two weekends. Classes cover basic food safety, psychological first aid, serving people with functional and access needs and basic shelter setup and operations.

An afternoon session Oct. 1 will be a simulation exercise designed to practice the skills learned during the course. Local Red Cross volunteers and emergency preparation groups will attend the simulation to meet and work with new volunteers and to assist with the simulation.

The classes will be held in Towler Hall Room 310 on Clatsop Community College's main campus at 1651 Lexington Ave. Register by calling 503-338-2402 or at www.clatsopcc.edu/ schedule.

September is National Preparedness Month.

OBITUARIES

Raymond Darrel Tolson

Forest Grove Jan. 13, 1926 — Sept. 13, 2017

Raymond Tolson

Raymond Darrel Tolson was born in Anaheim, California, on Jan. 13, 1926. He passed from this life in Forest Grove, Oregon, on Sept. 13, 2017.

He spent his youth in various areas in California and Oregon. He joined the Navy in 1943. After his discharge, he moved back to Oregon. He met the love of his life in Mary Lou Sharp. They were married on June 5, 1949, and spent the next 68 years together. They were married in Forest Grove, and settled in Gaston for a number of years. In 1969, they moved the family to Astoria, Oregon, where they spent the next 39 years.

He loved to fish and hunt. He worked as longshoreman for many years. After retirement he volunteered for Loaves and Fishes and the local food bank. He was always there to help any friend or neighbor with any project. He loved to garden, and had a vegetable garden which fed the neighborhood. His pride and joy were his purple potatoes.

His family was the most important part of his life. He was the glue which kept them all in touch and connected. Being the youngest of 10, there was plenty of family to visit. He loved seeing every member of the family. He had a smile for everyone he ever met.

Everyone was welcome in his home. He was preceded in death by his parents, Wilson Leroy and Emma Udora (Kay) Tolson; and his sisters and brothers, Hilda Jones, Laura Delano, Effie Twiggs, Rosella Wennerholm, Wayne Tolson, Wilma Miller, Vera Collins, Howard Tolson and Vivian Mullanix. He is survived his loving wife,

Mary Lou; and daughters Susan Tolson-Stoddard of Diamondville, Wyoming, and Bonnie Tolson of Seattle, Washington. He has five grandchildren, Heather, Amy, Jacob, David and Stephen; and six great-grandchildren. To sign the online guest book or to send the family condolences, visit www.fuitenrosehoyt. Fuiten, Rose & Hoyt Funeral Home in Forest Grove is entrusted with the arrangements.
