KRKZ donates to Jason Goodding Memorial Foundation

The Daily Astorian

SEASIDE — As part of local radio station KRKZ's Charity of the Month promotion, a $500 check was presented to the Jason Goodding Memorial Foundation, thanks in part to a commercial sponsorship provided by Clatsop Community Bank.

The foundation was established to honor Sgt. Jason Goodding after he was killed in the line of duty in February 2016. It was founded to offer scholarships to local students.

It is funded in part by proceeds from an annual summer cornhole tournament held in Goodding's memory. The 2017 tournament expanded by 10 teams (just one team short of capacity), included a silent auction, and generated $20,000 in proceeds compared to $10,000 the year before. Organizers continue to accept donations toward their 2017 goal of $25,000.

"We're so happy to be able to support this effort," Joe Schulte, Clatsop Community Bank president and CEO said. "I can't think of a better way to honor Sgt. Goodding than by helping to advance the education and future of our local students."

Astoria Seventh-day Adventist

The Astoria Seventh-day Adventist Church, 300 Nehalem Ave., is hosting events and live-streaming of the 31st annual Christian Women's Retreat at Eagle Crest Resort the weekend of Oct. 20-22. All women are invited to attend.

The main speaker is Jennifer Ogden, the children and family pastor at the Walla Walla University Church in Walla Walla, Washington. She is sharing on four topics throughout the weekend: "The Great Unveiling," "The Gravity of You," "Awaken in Grace" and "Pebbles in Shoes."

The event begins at 5:30 p.m. Oct. 20 with a light dinner in the Fellowship Hall, followed by live-streaming from the retreat at 6:45 p.m. in the Sanctuary.

Events on Oct. 21 begin at 9:40 a.m. with a worship service featuring Ogden, followed by "The Power of Story: How and Why Jesus Used Stories in His Ministry" with Janice Nelson at 12:25 p.m., both in the Sanctuary. A Potato Bar luncheon is served between 1:40 and 2:40 p.m., followed by packing boxes for Samaritan's Purse Operation Christmas Child in the Fellowship Hall.

At 4:15 p.m. Saturday, via live-streaming, Diana Jaworski presents "If You Could See What God Sees! ... Would Change Your Life," followed by a Nelson drama about rehab at 5:45 p.m., and a concert with Carly and Ted Alekel at 6:15 p.m. The evening ends with Ogden's third presentation.

The event concludes Oct. 22 with breakfast at 9 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall, and Ogden's final presentation via live-streaming in the Sanctuary at 10:30 a.m.

To assist in planning meals, RSVP by Wednesday by calling 503-325-0610 and leaving a voicemail. No child care is available.

Halloween spirit brings together 4-H and Clatsop Care

Submitted Photo

The Clatsop Care Center was full of Halloween spirit as 4-H members became guests for the evening. They brought their own pumpkins and carving tools, and carved pumpkins for the residents, who enjoyed the Halloween tradition of carving scary, happy and creative pumpkin faces. Pictured, from left, 4-H members Tucker and Tanner Delay, Trey and Miley Lempea and Anthony and Hayleigh Anglim. For information, or to join 4-H, call 503-325-8573.
