Marines prepare Toys for Tots

The Daily Astorian

Coordinator Lou Neubecker, a retired Marine, announced that the Daniel E. Crockett Detachment 1228 of the Marine Corps League Toys for Tots Campaign for 2017 in Clatsop County is on the way.

The mission of the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots Program is to collect new, unwrapped toys during November and December each year, and distribute the toys as Christmas gifts to needy children in the community. All toys collected in Clatsop County stay within the county. Since the Detachment began in 2004, it has collected thousand of toys for the less fortunate in Clatsop County.

For the list of North Coast businesses that have drop off boxes where new, unwrapped toys can be donated; or to give a monetary contribution to Toys for Tots online, go to <http://bit.ly/2xDIZ4F>

Astoria Seventh-day Adventist Church

The Astoria Seventh-day Adventist Church, 300 Nehalem Ave., presents a two-day series, "A Pale Horse Rides," which explores the recent decline of trust in organized religion, starting at 7 p.m. Oct. 27, and continuing from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Oct. 28. Topics include: "Rome Is Burning," "Barbarian Fire" and "An Underground Movement."

The series studies what the Bible has to say about Christianity's future, and uses stories from the 1,200 years that led up to Martin Luther's Reformation to illustrate the topic. It is hosted by Voice of Prophecy Speaker/Director Shawn Boonstra, who takes a documentary-style, Bible-based approach to the topic, and features local moderator Jose R. Agosto. Some of the issues being addressed are: what became of the Christian churches outside of the Roman Empire; how our ancestors became Christians; the relationship between church and state; and how to have strong faith.

All are welcome to attend this free series. Register on-site during the event, or call 503-325-0610 or go to www.palehorserides.com. All attendees receive a copy of Boonstra's new book, "A Pale Horse Rides."

Jennifer Lycette, MD
Oncologist

As a medical oncologist, I work closely with my colleagues in the CMH-OHSU Knight Cancer Collaborative and at OHSU to develop comprehensive treatment plans that are specific to the person and their particular cancer.

With their input, I can give my patients the best chance possible of surviving cancer. All without my patients having to physically travel to Portland. Geography is no longer a barrier in the digital age of medicine.
