

Get your feet wet at watercoloring class

GEARHART — Trail's End Art Association and Gallery in Gearhart will hold a beginning watercolor class in January taught by Astoria artist Debbie Loyd.

The class runs 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 6, and continues four more Saturdays through Feb. 3. The gallery is located at 656 A St., just south of Pacific Way. The cost is $180. To register, contact linlu11@hotmail.com.

Over 20 years, Loyd has won local and national awards by creating passionate works of many subjects, but she particularly enjoys portraits.

A fellow artist taught her that "art is an expression of reality as seen through the artist's personality." Another favorite quote: "It is an artist's job to find order in life and leave a record of what interested him, not what he thinks he ought to be interested in."

Trail's End Art Association and Gallery is the oldest gallery on the North Coast. It has been running as a gallery since the early 1950s but was once "the little red schoolhouse" from the early 20th century. The association welcomes artists beginning and accomplished, and offers such benefits as exhibiting art pieces monthly, discounts on purchases, entrance into an annual juried art show and daily open studios.

To contact the gallery, call 503-717-9458 or email trailsendartassociation@gmail.com. Winter hours are 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesday through Sunday.
