

There's 'Something Happening Here': an art show, auction

ILWACO, WASH. — The Columbia Pacific Heritage Museum will hold its eighth annual 6x6 (6-inch-by-6-inch) Art Show and Auction on Saturday, Nov. 4.

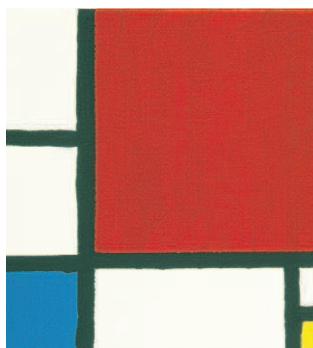

This year's event, "Something Happening Here," has gathered more than 60 art objects from some of the region's most talented artists. The theme for this year's auction is inspired by the special exhibition "Flashback: Remembering the 1960s."

"From music to social justice protests, the 1960s continue to inspire creative expression," Museum Director Betsy Millard said.

The pieces will be available to view in the museum's special exhibition gallery Friday, Oct. 27, until the Nov. 4 event. They can also be seen at columbiapacificheritagemuseum.org.

The silent and live auctions will take place 5 to 8 p.m. at the museum (115

S.E. Lake St.). The presiding auctioneer, Bruce Peterson, is both entertaining and knowledgeable about the artists and their works.

The event is the largest fundraiser for the exhibition programs of the Columbia Pacific Heritage Museum and a great opportunity to get to know the local art scene, enjoy refreshments, take home a masterpiece and, most importantly, show support for the museum.

Tickets for the auction are available at the museum for $15 each. Fifty raffle tickets are available for $20 each. The winner will have the pick of any 6x6 prior to the auction.
