

Astoria graduate featured in Promise of Oregon video

The Daily Astorian

A senior who graduated from Astoria High School in June was featured in a new short documentary by The Promise of Oregon, a campaign by the Oregon School Boards Association to improve the state's flagging graduation rates.

The documentary, "Graduation is Victory," follows students from the Class of 2017 as they prepare for graduation and talk about challenges they have overcome. Maryann Mandujano from Astoria was featured, along with students from Eugene, Portland and Eagle Point. The video can be found at <http://tinyurl.com/yaz4tfut>

The video is the second in a series of Promise efforts this school year focusing on improving graduation rates at high schools statewide. The state posted a 75 percent graduation rate for the Class of 2016, one of the lowest in the country. Statewide graduation rates for the Class of 2017 will be released in late January.

William Aarnio

Astoria

Oct. 8, 1941 — Nov. 5, 2017

William Aarnio, 76, passed away Sunday, Nov. 5, after suffering a fall.

William was born Oct. 8, 1941, to Sherman and Mary Hartman, and later adopted by Walter Aarnio of Svensen, Oregon.

William is survived by his wife of 45 years, Della Aarnio; daughters Judi Caceros (Roger) and Tammi Bentin (Don); and sons Eric Aarnio (Anita) and Jeffrey Aarnio

William Aarnio

(Tonia). He had 10 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

William worked at the Wauna Mill for nearly 24 years before retiring.

William was an avid motorcycle rider, and had many friends in the United Motorcycle Club International.

A celebration of life will be held at the Astoria Moose Lodge on Nov. 24, 2017 at 1 p.m.

Roger Guy Welty Salem

Sept. 20, 1949 — Nov. 3, 2017

Roger Guy Welty passed away on Nov. 3, 2017, at Salem Hospital in Salem, Oregon.

He was born to Roger Raymond and Jane Welty in Iowa City, Iowa, on Sept. 20, 1949, the oldest of four children. He graduated from Iowa State University in 1971 with a forestry degree. After graduation, he worked at temporary jobs in California, Colorado and New Hampshire.

Roger married Peggy Hildebrand on July 29, 1972. In 1973, they moved to Klamath Falls, Oregon, where he worked for Weyerhaeuser Co. In 1979, they moved to Astoria, Oregon, when he took a job with the Oregon Department of Forestry in forest management. They lived in Astoria for 33 years, where they raised their family.

In 2004 he transferred to Salem after a spinal cord injury made it unsafe for him to work in the woods. For many years, he bravely fought wildfires around the state. After which, he joined an Oregon Department of Forestry Incident Management Team.

An avid weightlifter all his life, competing nationally in his early years, Roger earned two Iowa championships. He was also an Eagle Scout and, being lovingly invested in his children's lives, served as an assistant scoutmaster and Cub Scout pack leader. Giving guidance and support when he could, it was his greatest desire that his children learn the meaning of strength, perseverance, diligence, and most of all, love.

Always looking to better himself as well, he joined Toastmasters for public speaking. Furthermore, passionate about his Catholic faith, he was moved to join the Knights of Columbus.

Roger is survived by his wife of 45 years, Peggy Welty; daughter Cathie (Jim) Parks; daughter Theresa (Arlo) Wand; daughter Jill (Yohanner) Welty; son Mark (Shalea) Welty; son Rick (Lauren) Welty; 10 loving grandchildren; his mother, Jane Welty; sister Sandi DeMango; brother Ken (Joan) Welty; brother Ted Welty; and many nieces and nephews.

A Mass of Christian burial will be Friday, Nov. 17, at 11 a.m., at Queen of Peace Catholic Church, 4227 Lone Oak Rd. S.E., Salem, OR 97302, preceded by the rosary at 10:15 a.m. A reception will follow the service.

Assisting the family is Virgil T. Golden Funeral Service.

Mary Louise (Paetow) Hale

Everett, Washington

June 2, 1941 — Nov. 1, 2017

Mary Louise (Paetow) Hale died from pneumonia on Nov. 1, 2017, at the age of 76. She passed peacefully, with her family at her side.

Mary was born on June 2, 1941, in Astoria, Oregon. The daughter of Louise and Bill Paetow, Mary spent most of her childhood in Vancouver, Washington. She graduated from Hudson's Bay High School in 1959, and earned her associate's degree from Clark College in 1961, before completing a bachelor's degree and teaching certification at the University of Washington.

She married Donald Jay Hale on Sept. 17, 1961, in Vancouver, Washington, and in 1967 they moved to Everett, Washington.

Mary taught in the Bellevue School District, the Everett School District, and at Edmonds Community College (EdCC) for 25 years. After retiring from the EdCC faculty in January 2002, she served as the college's interim vice president for instruction for three years. Mary loved her work and her many good friends at EdCC.

Mary strongly believed in serving her community. Over the decades, she was a tireless volunteer: Snohomish County League of Women Voters; Planned Parenthood of Snohomish County; Everett Planning Commission; Everett Civil Service Commission; Greater Everett Community Foundation; Schack Art Center capital campaign committee; Edmonds Community College Foundation board; and many, many more.

Mary was passionate about politics — a "political junkie" — and chaired and coordinated, as well as served on, a number of local and national political campaigns.

She was an enthusiastic gardener, a nonstop reader and book collector, an organizer of frequent family get-togethers, and a loving grandmother to Margaret and Violet, ages 12 and 9. Her daughters will remember most her energy, her commitment to community and charity, and her love of books and learning.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents, Bill Paetow and Louise (Ilander) Paetow; daughter, Rachel Hale; sister, Kaylene (Paetow) Powell; brother, Chris Paetow; niece, Barbara Nehler; and most recently by her brother-in-law, Terry Powell, who passed on Monday, Oct. 30.

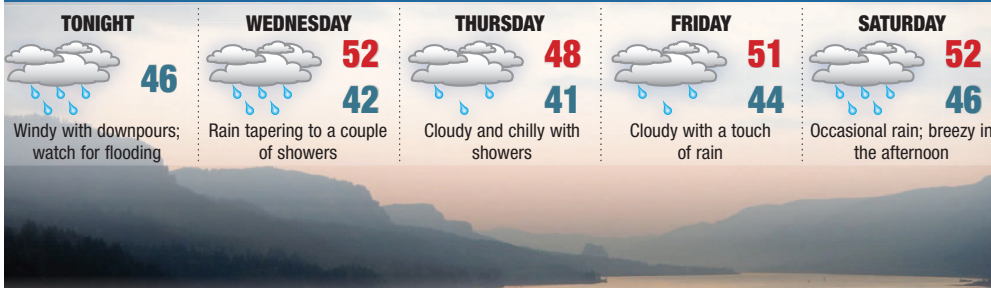

She is survived by beloved spouse, Don Hale; daughter, Mary Elizabeth Hale; daughter, Sarah Hale Palaia; sons-in-law, Umesh Madan and Tom Palaia; granddaughters, Margaret and Violet Palaia; nieces and nephews, Steve Hale, Dale Nehler, Kiki Hale Home, Kristin Tennant and Dan Nehler; and many other family members and friends.

A celebration of life service will be held for Mary at the Everett Golf & Country Club on Saturday, Nov. 25 from 2 to 5 p.m., with a brief eulogy at 3 p.m. There will be food, drink and happy memories. All are welcome.
