'A Trail Band Holiday' brings musical magic to Raymond

RAYMOND, WASH. — Sunday Afternoon Live presents "A Trail Band Holiday" program 2 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 26. Join us to kickoff the holiday season with music and mirth.

"A Trail Band Holiday" has been performed annually since its inception in 1994, and was originally produced as a television special for Oregon Public Broadcasting.

The show includes Marv and Rindy Ross of Quarterflash and Seafood Mama fame. They will be accompanied by Eddie Parente, a virtuoso violinist.

The Trail Band members joining them for this special concert are:

- Cal Scott, musical director for The Trail Band, performing on cornet, mandolin and guitar. Scott has composed the scores to more than 40 PBS documentaries as an award-winning singer and songwriter.

- Mike Doherty, known as a master of the hammer dulcimer, also plays electric and string brass. He performs as a musician and storyteller with Oregon Shadow Theatre.

- Phil Neuman and Gail Neuman record for Pandourion Records and lead the Oregon Renaissance Band. The couple deftly plays a wide variety of instruments, with Gayle Neuman playing violin, flageolet and trombone. Phil Neuman is featured on tuba, coronet, bagpipe, recorder and pennywhistle.

- Dan Stuber, a percussionist, provides the beat at the heart of The Trail Band. He has performed with The Flying Karamazov Brothers on Broadway, and performs with several jazz and pop ensembles in Portland.

Come celebrate the season with these talented musicians as "A Trail Band Holiday" brings their festive musical magic to the Raymond Theater!

Tickets are $15 at the door or $12 in advance at the Raymond Theatre (323 Third St.), Raymond Pharmacy and South Bend Pharmacy. For more ticket information, call 360-875-5207.

The show is sponsored by Davis Insurance and Real Estate, Helen Campbell, Dick Mergens and Willapa Veterinary Service.
