OBITUARIES

Renae M. Odegard-Carpenter

Gearhart
May 24, 1966 — Nov. 9, 2017

Renae was born May 24, 1966 in Breckinridge, Minnesota, to Orvis and Marian (Murack) Odegard. She passed away Nov. 9, 2017.

Renae attended grade school in Forman, North Dakota, and spent much of her childhood on her grandparents' farm in Milnor, North Dakota.

She began her high school career in Seaside. After graduating from Seaside High School in 1984, Renae returned to North Dakota. She attended Concordia College in Moorhead, Minnesota for a year. Then she ran her parents' restaurant in Milnor, North Dakota, and attended North Dakota State College of Science for a year.

When she returned to the Oregon Coast, Renae began her career in accounting for Edwin L. Luoma, CPA. While working full time, she attended Linfield College and graduated with a bachelor's degree in accounting. She has worked for TDM Enterprises for the last several years.

On July 31, 1999, Renae married James K. Carpenter at Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church in Seaside. Together they have two children, Mathew and Macie.

Renae volunteered in the classroom when both of her children attended grade school. She was at almost every practice, game, recital and concert they've had. She chaperoned dances and parties, even when the kids may not have wanted her there. She was so very proud to be a mom.

Family was always very important to Renae, and she was fiercely loyal to the people she loved. One of the greatest compliments she could ever give someone, relative or not, was that they were one of "her kids," "her sisters," or "her family." This is a very large group of people, and she never forgot a name or face. Anyone who knew her can say, without a doubt, that she was tenacious and very strong. She was honest, loyal, smart, and a friend to everyone. But most of all, she was kind.

She taught Fraternity of Christian Doctrine in high school, and then more recently for the First Communion class at Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church for five years. She loved to bake and sew. When family and friends were together she loved to play cards and games.

She is survived by her husband, Jim; her children, Mathew and Macie; her stepchildren, Tasha Potter (Jason) and Tim Carpenter; her parents, Orvis and Marian Odegard; her sisters, Laurie Riser (Danny), Monica Odegard-Feuz (Don) and Michelle Sanford (Wil); nieces Cali and Savannah; nephews Parker, Braxton and Tristan; and grandchildren Ryan and Maelah.

She was predeceased by her brother, Duane J. Odegard, and stepson, James D. Carpenter.

A viewing/visitation is scheduled for Friday, Nov. 17, 2017 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Hughes-Ransom Mortuary Chapel, 200 N. Holladay Drive in Seaside.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 18, 2017 at Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church in Seaside, followed by a committal service at Ocean View Cemetery. The family has planned a celebration of Renae's life at the Twisted Fish Restaurant, 311 Broadway in Seaside, Oregon, after the graveside service from 2 to 5 p.m. for anyone who would like to attend.

Please visit the online guest book at www.hughes-ransom.com/obituary and www.facebook.com/hughesransommortuary to leave a comment and/or share a memory.

The family encourages donations be made in Renae's memory to: Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church, 120 Oceanway, Seaside, OR 97138, OLV/Cancer.
