

OBITUARIES

Bobby Theodore Peters Hammond

Dec. 24, 1942 - Nov. 12, 2017

Bobby Theodore Peters, 74, entered into glory with our Lord Jesus Christ on Sunday morning, Nov. 12, 2017, at 7:45 a.m. in Astoria, Oregon. Bobby was loved by many, and will be missed by all who knew him.

Bobby is survived by his wife of 41 years, Terie Lynn (McGregory) Peters.

Bobby was born in Birmingham, Alabama, on Christmas Eve, Dec. 24, 1942, to Gladys Levan Pollard and Charles Lee Peters. Both parents preceded him in death.

His life's work was in auto body repair and painting, owning several shops of his own in both Northern and Southern California. After retiring, Terie and Bobby relocated to the Pacific North Coast of Oregon, where they eventually went to work at Point Adams Packing Company. Bobby worked until September 2017.

Bobby has two children from his first marriage, who both survive him: Terrance (Glori) Peters of Florida and Kimberlyn (Jerry) Morris of California.

Left to mourn his passing are stepmother Rose Alice Peters of Indiana; sisters Shirley Hall of Georgia, Linda Thomas of Virginia, Gwen Peters of Alabama and JoJo Peters of Indiana. Also, brothers Charles Peters Jr. and Chad Peters of Indiana; as well as many nieces and nephews.

Bobby loved and was very proud of his six grandchildren. They are Stanley, Terrance, and Simone Peters of Florida. Also, Robert, Ryan, and Christopher Morris of California.

Bobby is also survived by numerous family members in California, Oregon, Washington, and Texas, who all loved him, and whom he loved. Bobby often said that he greatly treasured his wife's family because of the way they all accepted him and loved him.

Our grief is deep as is our mourning: Ken McGregor (Mary Jo Litherland), father-in-law, Longview, Washington; Luella Kerr, mother-in-law, Hammond, Oregon; Peggy (Allen) Berry, Hammond, Oregon; Ken (Robin) McGregor, Portland, Oregon; Bill (Jackie) Kerr, Warrenton, Oregon; and Brian (Patricia) Kerr, Woodland, Washington; as well as many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Best friend, Allen Berry, will forever miss the conversations and laughter that the two men shared.

Whether cheering on their favorite basketball teams, or enjoying a day at Coffenburg Lake where they loved to drown worms, Bobby and Allen enjoyed a friendship that each referred to as a true kinship: they were brothers.

Special friends, Jill Benish and Mark Peterson, will certainly miss Bobby.

Bobby was a member of Gateway Community Church in Hammond, Oregon.

A celebration of life will be held at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 2, 2017, at Gateway Community Church, 796 Pacific Drive, Hammond, Oregon 97121. Coffee and light refreshments to follow.

A special thanks goes to the nursing staff at Providence Seaside Hospital, Clatsop Care and Lower Columbia Hospice.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Bobby's name to: Lower Columbia Hospice, 2111 Exchange St., Astoria, OR 97103.

Twilight and evening bell, And after that the dark! And may there be no sadness of farewell, When I embark.

John 'Billy' William Bader Jr.

Seaside

Oct. 28, 1947 — Oct. 26, 2017

John "Billy" William Bader Jr. was born to John William Bader and Ellen T. Bader in Portland, Oregon. He attended Alameda Grade School and Benson Polytechnic High School, graduating from Grant High School in 1965.

He served two years in the U.S. Coast Guard, and was a Merchant Marine.

He spent his life after high school living in Seaside, where he became an electrician with Borland Electric. Bill was the manager of all electrical systems in the renovation of the downtown Portland Library. He worked on the Trojan Nuclear Power Plant, and was the electrical foreman for the wastewater facility in Hillsboro.

He retired in 2002, but continued his love of learning through classes at Portland Community College, the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry, the Maritime Museum and independent research.

Bill had a zest for life and a love of the outdoors. His hobbies were skiing (he was part of the Mount Hood Ski Patrol), biking, sailing, salmon fishing and clamming, mushrooming, traveling, remodeling rentals and camping trips every August with the nephews in the Olympics.

Billy is survived by his loving sisters, Marilyn Bader Mills (Allan) and Janet Bader Hughes (Gregg); nephews, Jason Hughes (Kristy), Jonathan Hughes (Erin), Justin Hughes and Jeremy Hughes; four great-nieces and nephews, Madison, Owen, Kai, and Dylan; and his love, Marjean Langley.

Billy was a caring and devoted friend to many, especially to his mother, Ellen, and his 105-year-old auntie, Edith Pate. He led a simple and fulfilling life, and will be truly missed.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations be made to: Marysville Nursing Home, 14645 S.W. Farmington Road, Beaverton, OR 97007; or the Columbia River Maritime Museum, 1992 Marine Drive, Astoria, OR 97103.

A funeral mass was held at 10 a.m., Monday, Nov. 6, 2017 at Holy Rosary Church in Portland. A celebration of life will be announced at a later date.

An online guest book is available on the Mount Scott Funeral Home website at tinyurl.com/JWBader

Laurie Yarbrough

Seaside

Feb. 21, 1964 — Nov. 10, 2017

Laurie Yarbrough, 53, passed away suddenly and unexpectedly on Nov. 10, 2017 at her home in Seaside, Oregon.

Laurie was born on Feb. 21, 1964, to the late Larry and Jeanette Yarbrough in Eugene, Oregon. She spent most of her life in the Seattle area, where she graduated from Kentrigh High School. A born sports enthusiast, Laurie spent her young adult years playing and umpiring women's softball. Her love of baseball led to her role as chief financial officer of the Tacoma Rainiers baseball team.

Laurie shared her enthusiasm of the game with her daughter, nieces, nephews, and friends with outings to the baseball diamond, where she never missed an opportunity to spoil them with treats and photos with Rhubarb the Reindeer, the team mascot. Laurie was also fiercely loyal to the Seattle Mariners and the Seattle Seahawks, recruiting all her friends, who grew to love the team almost as much as she did.

In addition to sports, Laurie loved any outdoor activity, including skydiving, kayaking, hiking, scuba diving, and rock climbing. She was an avid photographer who chronicled her adventures with families and friends. She spent later years combing the coast for agates and shells.

Laurie was perhaps best known for her love of animals. Over the years she adopted and rehabilitated many beloved pets. It was often said that any animal she took home had hit the jackpot.

Her happiest and final years were when she moved to Seaside, Oregon, to join her sisters in 2012. From the day she arrived, Laurie engaged with every person she met. Finding peace in Seaside, she graced all with her wit, charm, compassion, laughter, and love of life.

Her aim each day was to be patient, kind, loving and tolerant, and be of service to others. She was a loyal sister, friend, and mentor, and a devoted member of Alcoholics Anonymous. She was a loving spark in this community, and her love was returned ten-fold by everyone she touched. Her joy was infectious, and she will be sorely missed.

Laurie is survived by her daughter, Kerensa Irvin; her sisters, Becky Bresland and Kathy Boro; her brother, Michael; and her nieces, Bri Hamilton, Taylor Tarlton, Jessica Sullivan, Niccole Sullivan, Stephanie Lee and Jillian Cooper; a nephew, Anthony Roybal; great-nieces and great-nephews; and many extended family and beloved friends.

A celebration of life for Laurie will be held on Dec. 3, 2017, from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Bob Chisholm Community Center, 1225 Avenue A in Seaside, Oregon.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to your local animal shelter.

Designing schools for sheltering

By R.J. MARX
Seaside Signal

Seaside's Doug Dougherty will be among the presenters at a major national event — the Eleventh U.S. National Conference on Earthquake Engineering: Integrating Science, Engineering and Policy, June 25-29, in Los Angeles.

The former Seaside School District superintendent led the effort to raise awareness of the district's at-risk schools in the event of a Cascadia Subduction Zone earthquake and tsunami. Dougherty and others developed and promoted a 2016 measure successfully raising $99.7 million for new schools outside of the tsunami zone.

Dougherty achieved national attention in the Pulitzer Prize-winning New Yorker piece "The Really Big One," by Kathryn Schulz. He was also extensively profiled in Bonnie Henderson's "The Next Tsunami," which chronicles his efforts to build safer schools.

Dougherty, who retired from the district in 2016, serves on the Oregon Seismic Safety Policy Advisory Commission and is working on Senate Bill 850 to develop the Mass Care and Shelter plan for Oregon. Dougherty co-authored "Oregon Schools Face 'The Really Big One: Advancing School-Centered Community Resilience,'" with researchers Yumei Wang and Ted Wolf.
