

State parks offer free guided New Year’s Day hikes

The Daily Astorian

The state Parks and Recreation Department is offering free guided hikes Jan. 1 at Oswald West State Park and Sunset Beach.

The hike at Oswald West will start at 10 a.m. at a shop in the park’s main parking lot along U.S. Highway 101 and head west 1 mile to the Matt Kramer Memorial over-looking Short Sands Beach. Kramer was a journalist for the Associated Press who reported on the state’s Beach Bill keeping the coastline public.

The hike at Sunset Beach will begin at 10 a.m. in the main parking lot on Sun-set Beach Road and trek 6 miles on the Fort to Sea Trail through reforested shore dunes, dune lakes, open meadows, and areas

The Daily Astorian
State Parks and Recreation Department staff will lead free guided hikes around the region Jan. 1, including along the Fort to Sea Trail.

of maturing pine and spruce forest.

The hikes are part of a statewide guided hiking event organized by the Parks and Recreation Department. The event also includes regional hikes along the Banks-Vernonia State Trail and to the end of Cape Lookout southwest of Tillamook.

A full list of hikes, times and online registration can be found at tinyurl.com/y8s57wz5. Online registration is not required but helps park staff plan and notify visitors of any schedule changes.

Mayor seeks to fill seats on budget committee

The Daily Astorian

Astoria Mayor Arline LaMear is seeking candidates to fill vacancies on the Astoria Budget Committee.

The budget committee reviews the proposed budget submitted by city staff and sets spending policy and the tax rate for the coming year. The committee includes five city councilors and five residents. Terms last for three years.

The committee generally meets during the months of March, April and May. Knowledge of general finance and governmental operations is helpful but not necessary.

To apply, fill out a citizen advisory committee application available at the city’s website. For more information, contact the mayor’s office at 503-325-5824 or e-mail jbenoit@astoria.or.us.

OBITUARIES

Karen Agnethe Radich Warrenton Nov. 16, 1921 — Dec. 6, 2017

Karen passed away Dec. 6, 2017, in Astoria, Oregon, at the age of 96. She was born Nov. 16, 1921, in Koed, Denmark, to the late Valdemar and Johanne Pedersen.

She was 2 years and 3 months old when her parents came to America and settled in Utah. In 1931, the family came to Oregon, living in Astoria and in Warrenton since 1945. She graduated from Astoria High School in 1941.

She served in the Navy Women Accepted for Volunteer Emergency Service (WAVES) for two years as a pharmacist’s mate second class.

She married Lloyd Hagnas in 1946, and was divorced in 1956. Two children were born into this union, Linda and Carl.

Karen has worked at Hill Air Base in Utah as a storekeeper supervisor, the fish canneries, Tongue Point naval base till its closure, renovating houses, and also worked in the flour mill.

Karen met and then married Luka Radich Dec. 1, 1962, and later sealed to him for time and all eternity in the Seattle Latter-day Saints Temple in 1986. Luka passed away in 1993.

Karen was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. In her earlier years, she loved dancing and bowling. In her golden years, playing pinochle was her joy. Her other enjoyable things were traveling, pinochle groups, clam digging, sport fishing, dancing, Tops Ladies, Veteran Ladies, church luncheons, Danish Society, gardening, church and family.

Survivors include a son, Carl Hagnas of Warrenton, Oregon; a daughter, Linda Millard of Corvallis, Oregon; a sister, Verna Hellberg of Astoria; a brother-in-law, Merle Thornton of Warrenton; a sister-in-law, Margie Radich of Portland; and numerous nieces and nephews. Five grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren also survive, as well as too many special friends to name them all individually. You know who you are, and she loved you all.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a brother, Carl, and his wife, Beverly; a brother, Erik, and his wife, Madge; a sister, Viola; a stepson, Lloyd Hagnas Jr.; a son-in-law, Steven Millard; and a brother-in-law, Edward Hellberg.

Karen will be remembered for her smile, her sense of humor, her friendliness, her love for people, and she loved hugs. She will be missed by her family and many, many friends.

A funeral service will be held at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 350 Niagara Ave., in Astoria, Oregon, on Saturday, Dec. 16, 2017, at 11 a.m. Visitation will be held from 10 to 11 a.m. in the Relief Society Room at the church.

Committal services will be at Ocean View Cemetery in Warrenton, Oregon. Alan Oja will dedicate the grave and Navy Funeral Honors will give the farewell salute and taps. Following the committal services, please return to the church for a friendship hour and lunch.

Memorial gifts may be made to Lower Columbia Hospice, 2111 Exchange St., Astoria, OR 97103, or to the charity of one’s choice.

Caldwell’s Luce-Layton Mortuary is in charge of the arrangements. Please sign our online guest book at: www.caldwellsmortuary.com
