Days for Girls has fundraiser for young women in Uganda

The Daily Astorian

WARRENTON — The Days for Girls Astoria Team is holding an open house and fundraiser from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday at the JoAnn Fabric and Craft Store, 180 S.E. Neptune Drive. The team consists of a group of 25 women and girls who sew reusable feminine hygiene kits that are delivered to girls in rural Uganda.

The kits provide girls with a way to stay in school; without a way to manage their periods, the girls stay at home. By the time they enter high school, they are academically behind, and end up dropping out of school.

Last year, the local group sewed and delivered 350 full-sized kits and 200 mini-kits. The goal this year is to make 500 full-sized kits and raise money at the event for bar soap, underpants, washcloths and a lot of fabric. Donations of woven cotton fabric and flannel fabric are also being accepted.

For information, email astoriaor@daysforgirls.org or go to www.daysforgirls.org
