

Two plead not guilty in connection with robbery, shooting in Seaside

Pair faces multiple charges

Two Seaside residents have pleaded not guilty in connection with a robbery and shooting at the Beachside Inn in November.

Shaun Scarborough, 28, is facing charges of first-degree assault, second-degree assault, first-degree robbery, first-degree burglary and felon in possession of a firearm.

Marta Alicia Garfias, 21, is facing the same charges except for felon in possession of a firearm.

The two allegedly shot a 36-year-old man staying in a room at the hotel near the intersection of Fifth Avenue and N. Downing Street at about 2 a.m. Nov. 12. The man was taken to a Portland-based hospital where he was treated for his injuries.

Scarborough and Garfias were arrested in La Mesa, California, one week after the shooting. They were recently transferred to the Clatsop County Jail.

Scarborough was convicted of multiple drug and assault charges in 2007. He pleaded no contest in October to felon in possession of a firearm after a June standoff with Seaside police. Scarborough agreed to serve probation in his plea deal with the district attorney's office, but the deal stipulated he would serve more than 3½ years in prison if he violated it.

Both Scarborough and Garfias face at least 20 years in prison if convicted on all charges. They are scheduled for early resolution conferences in January.

Warrenton-Hammond School Board member resigns, cites personal reasons

By EDWARD STRATTON
The Daily Astorian

WARRENTON — Mike Atwood, a state Department of Transportation employee elected in May to the Warrenton-Hammond School Board, has resigned.

The time commitment to the school board and all his other volunteer activities became overwhelming, along with the way a school board works, Atwood said.

"I just didn't want to get in trouble, because I usually speak out," he said.

Atwood, a Warrenton native, ran unopposed for Position 3 on the school board after Kelly Simonsen did not file for re-election.

"I was asked to," he said. "I'm usually involved in my kids and their sports."

Atwood is a transportation maintenance specialist with the state and a union steward, a position he said has to be on-call. He also volunteers with Warrenton's youth football and baseball programs.

Debbie Morrow, chairwoman of the school board, said the process of appointing a replacement for Atwood will begin in February or March because of the district being closed for two weeks around Christmas.

"Plus, we are in the thick of a facilities study, so we thought we would wait until after that process instead of thrusting a person into the middle of that," Morrow said.

Washington state cancels salmon farm lease after fish escape

Associated Press

SEATTLE — Washington state officials have canceled an Atlantic salmon farm lease belonging to a company that also operates another salmon farm where more than 160,000 adult fish escaped into the Puget Sound last summer.

Public Lands State Commissioner Hilary Franz says the decision is final with no room for negotiation, The Seattle Times reported in a story on Sunday.

Franz said the Washington Department of Natural Resources will work with Cooke Aquaculture Pacific and other state agencies to complete an orderly shutdown and removal of the farm in Port Angeles.

The company also operates a fish farm at Cypress Island where the escape occurred in August.

In a news release Sunday, Franz said that after the fish escape she directed her staff to inspect every net pen in the state to make sure the company was meeting its contract and that the state's waters were safe.

"It is now clear that Cooke has been violating the lease terms for its Port Angeles net pens," Franz wrote. "In light of this violation, and in fulfillment of my commitment to protect our lands and waters, I am terminating the lease."

Knappa man dies in mobile home fire

By JACK HEFFERNAN
The Daily Astorian

A Knappa man is dead after his trailer home caught fire Thursday night.

Emergency personnel responded to the trailer, located inside Knappa Mobile Park at 42280 Lois Loop, just after 7 p.m. The fire was contained after several hours.

The body of Richard Lee

Huddleston, 59, was recovered at the scene. The structure is considered a total loss.

Authorities are investigating the cause of death and the fire, but it does not appear to be suspicious, according to a Clatsop County Sheriff's Office press release.

An autopsy has been scheduled with the Oregon State Medical Examiner's Office.

Fibre Federal acquires land for Warrenton branch

By EDWARD STRATTON
The Daily Astorian

WARRENTON — Fibre Federal Credit Union is planning a new location at the North Coast Retail Center.

The credit union recently purchased space at the southeast corner of U.S. Highway 101 and Ensign Lane, next to the new Walmart Supercenter under construction, for $858,000 from developer Ken Leahy's Peaks View LLC.

Angie Leppert, senior vice president of marketing and human resources for Fibre Federal, said the credit union plans to put a new branch at the site. Across Ensign Lane is a Wauna Federal Credit Union built several years ago.

Fibre Federal, based in Longview, Washington, has nine branches along the Interstate 5 corridor. In 2015, Fibre Federal was chosen by the National Credit Union Administration to take over the assets of TLC Federal Credit Union after federal regulators deemed it had no chance of survival. The credit union's five branches throughout Tillamook, Lincoln and Clatsop counties kept the TLC name but were rebranded as a division of Fibre Federal.

"There's been strong growth over the last few years," Leppert said. "We also serve counties surrounding Clatsop, such as Pacific County, Washington. "The Warrenton area seems like a natural place for us to have growth in the market."
