North Bend holds off Astoria, 48-42

The Daily Astorian

The Astoria boys basketball team returned to their home floor Monday night, where the Fishermen hosted North Bend in non-league action at the Brick House.

And the Bulldogs had their star player in top form, as junior Jayden Frank scored 25 points to lead North Bend to a 48-42 win.

Astoria led 10-6 after one quarter, but the Bulldogs rallied and held a 33-32 lead heading into the fourth. Frank made 5-of-7 free throws in the final quarter, and North Bend was able to close out the victory.

Karsten Johnson scored 18 points and Josh Olson added 13 for the Fishermen, who return to action tonight at home vs. Gladstone.

PORTLAND — A 3-pointer by Claire Bussert with 1:20 remaining snapped a 30-30 tie, and led to a 34-32 win for Warrenton at Portland Adventist in a Lewis & Clark League girls basketball game.

"It's a huge win," said Warrenton coach Robert Hoepfl, whose team finally won on the Cougars' home floor, in Warrenton's last league game ever at Portland Adventist. "It's definitely big because we didn't want to start 0-3 in league, and it gives us something to feel good about heading into break."

The Warriors trailed 17-13 at halftime, then got their game going, as Morgan Blodgett, Tyla Little and Bussert all hit 3-pointers to help Warrenton grab a 26-24 lead after three quarters.

The Cougars had a chance to win the game in the final seconds, but a shot missed and Sagi Diego's big rebound for the Warriors secured the win.

Little had 15 points and Bussert added eight.

Successful weekend

CATHLAMET, Wash. — Fifteen schools took part in the annual Downriver Challenge wrestling meet Saturday.

Adna won the team title with 200.5 points, followed by Columbia White Salmon and Mark Morris, while Warrenton was the top Oregon school with 136 points.

Neah-Kah-Nie, Knappa and Clatskanie also took part in the event, hosted by Wahkiakum High School.

The Warriors had two individual champions, as junior Kaden Gilbert pinned all of his opponents to win the title at 195 pounds, and senior teammate Beau Reynolds did the same for the championship at 285.

"Almost every scorer put points on the board for us, and we got a bunch of bonus points for pins," said Warrenton coach Corey Conant. "We were happy with fourth place as a team, but it shows how far we have come, because some of our leaders were disappointed we didn't finish higher."

"Coach (Trent) Klebe and I were thrilled with how our team scrapped for points and performed in close matches. We are learning how to wrestle."

Gilbert is "wrestling really light at 195, and is almost set to go down to 182," Conant said. "Even still, he keeps looking better each week."

Reynolds "is only in his second year of competition, but he put in a ton of work in the offseason and it is really paying off for him this year. His leadership helps form the heart of our team."

Elsewhere, senior Morgan Buoy wrestled up a weight class and still took third at 182; and first-year wrestler Nic Pior wrestled up a weight at 145, and was 4-1 to place fifth.

"Nic is really tough and we knew he could earn us a couple points at 145, but we had no idea he would win four huge matches for us," Conant said.

For Knappa, freshman Isaac Goozee had the highest finish for the Loggers, second at 195.

team and some of our wrestlers were wrestling up a weight," said Knappa coach Dan Owings. "Wrestling in some of these bigger and tougher tournaments should help our wrestlers prepare for our league teams."

Knappa's Jade Somoza was fourth at 113, and David Patterson took fourth at 285.

Knappa takes part in the Clatskanie Invitational Dec.30.

Lady Warriors third

HILLSBORO — In girls' wrestling Saturday, Warrenton wrestlers took part in the Liberty Invitational in Hillsboro.

The Lady Warriors placed third out of 20 teams, finishing behind wrestling powerhouses Hood River Valley and Century. Warrenton had two champions, one second-place, three thirds and one fifth.

Astoria's girls 200-yard freestyle relay team (Jazzy King, Isabelle Williams, Moira Welsh, Megan Schacher) placed third out of 20 entrants in 2 minutes, 1.51 seconds, behind North Bend and Newport. Astoria was fourth in the 400-yard freestyle relay.
