

Liberty to sponsor scholarships for Friday Musical Club

Liberty Theatre

The Liberty Theatre and the Friday Musical Club have announced that effective immediately, the Liberty Theatre will act as fiscal sponsor for the Friday Musical Club's music scholarship program, which provides scholarships for individual music lessons for local area youth each year, as well as funding string workshops for local youth and adults taught by violinist Kevin Lefohn. Pictured, the most recent Friday Musical Club scholarship recipients. Donations made to the Liberty Theatre designated for the Friday Musical Club's scholarship fund are tax-deductible. For information about the Liberty Theatre's community outreach, contact Jennifer Crockett at theaterdirector@liberty.org; for questions about the Friday Musical Club, contact Charlene Larsen at c.l.larsen@charter.net

Clatsop CASA adds new advocates for children in December

The Daily Astorian

The Clatsop Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) Program has announced that on Dec. 14 four new volunteers joined CASA to help serve abused and neglected children in Clatsop County.

Judge Dawn McIntosh conducted the ceremony to swear in Joyce Balint, Buzz Johnson, Carrie Nunnally and Stacey Womack, who have undergone more than 30 hours of training in order to be able to effectively advocate for maltreated children.

The CASA Program conducts trainings for new CASAs twice a year. The next training starts April 4. Those who are interested can call Ann Lederer or Keshia Womble at 503-338-6063, email casa@clatsopcasa.org, or go to clatsop-casa.org

Free day-use days announced at Washington State Parks

The Daily Astorian

ILWACO, Washington — The Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission is offering two free days in January, when visitors to state parks will not need a Discover Pass for day-use visits.

The first free day is Monday, which also coincides with First Day Hikes, a nationwide initiative that aims to get people outdoors on New Year's Day; the second is Jan. 15, in honor of the holiday celebrating Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday.

The Discover Pass is still required to access lands managed by the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife and Department of Natural Resources on these days. For information, go to parks.state.wa.us
