OBITUARIES

Dale Frandsen Seaside

May 5, 1935 — Dec. 23, 2017

Dale Frandsen, 82, passed away at his home in Seaside on Dec. 23, 2017.

He was born May 5, 1935, in Glasgow, Montana, to Earl and Dorothy Ahl Frandsen.

Dale spent his early years on his family's farm near Sisseton, South Dakota, where he also attended school. In 1950 he moved to Astoria, Oregon, and graduated from Astoria High School in 1954.

He served in the Army, and was a graduate of Elgin Watch and Clockmakers College in Elgin, Illinois.

Frandsen started in the jewelry business working for Ulaine's Jewelry in Astoria and Del Moore Jewelry in Seaside. In 1961, he purchased the store and changed the name to Frandsen's Jewelry. In 1997, Dale retired from the jewelry store.

On Sept. 24, 1960, he married Shirley Wilson in Astoria. They made their home in Seaside, where they lived the rest of their lives. In retirement, Dale was able to golf, drive his Corvette and spend time with his wife of nearly 54 years.

Dale Frandsen

Dale was a member and past president of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, the Seaside Chamber of Commerce, and Seaside Rotary Club, a member of Seaside Elks and American Legion, and served on the Miss Oregon Pageant Board and on several city and community service committees.

Dale is survived by his two daughters, Sally Frandsen of Olympia, Washington, and Angela Beck (Don) of Seaside; grandchildren Ben Homolac, Joel Homolac, Jessica Moates (Adam) and Amanda Beck; and five great-grandchildren.

A service will be held on Saturday, Jan. 6, at 11 a.m., at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church in Seaside.

There will be a viewing from 10:15 to 10:45 a.m. at the church.

Memorial contributions may be made to Seaside Rotary Foundation or Our Saviour's Lutheran Church in Seaside.

Series of quakes near Mount St. Helens

The Columbian

A series of nine earthquakes originating near Mount St. Helens early Wednesday was felt throughout Clark County and as far away as Seattle, according to the U.S. Geological Survey.

The first earthquake hit at 12:36 a.m. and had a magnitude of 3.9, and was followed at 12:39 a.m. by a 2.7 magnitude quake.

Seven other smaller earthquakes followed, ranging in magnitude from 1.0 to 1.9. The last quake was recorded at 3:55 a.m.

The cluster of quakes was centered on the Bean Creek drainage northeast of Mount St. Helens and about 3 miles east of Spirit Lake. The depth of the earthquakes ranged from 9.4 kilometers to 11.1 kilometers, the USGS reported.

Coast Guard helicopter rescues man suffering medical issue from reef near Depoe Bay

Associated Press

DEPOE BAY — A 19-year-old man suffering from an unknown medical issue was rescued by helicopter just south of Depoe Bay.

The Register-Guard reported the Depoe Bay Fire District says low tide Tuesday allowed the man to be rescued from a reef in Big Whale Cove that is typically underwater.

A Coast Guard helicopter made the rescue once firefighters had responded to the scene.

Firefighters stabilized the patient with help from ambulance personnel within 10 minutes of receiving the dispatch call at 3:52 p.m.

The fire district says the man was taken to a local hospital for assessment.

MEMORIAL

Saturday, Jan. 6

SARKIE, Kathryn (Kitty) Jean — Celebration of life at 11 a.m., First Lutheran Church, 725 33rd St., with a reception to follow.

ON THE RECORD

Endangering a minor

On Saturday, Michael Alfred Amick, 25, and Lisa Neaman, 36, were arrested by the Warrenton Police Department on one count each of first-degree child neglect, endangering a minor, reckless endangerment, unlawful possession of heroin and unlawful delivery of heroin. The two were stopped near the intersection of Ridge Road and Ninth Street.

A search by Warrenton's German shepherd K9 unit Gabe found heroin, needles and paraphernalia inside a diaper bag, according to Chief Mathew Workman. The Department of Human Services took custody of a 1-year-old child. Neaman also received a charge of tampering with evidence after trying to swallow heroin during the arrest, Workman said.

Assault

On Sunday, Alliana Bruton, 20, was arrested by the Astoria Police Department on one count each of fourth-degree assault, disorderly conduct and harassment. A transient in Astoria, Bruton was arrested at Eighth Street and the Astoria Riverwalk for assaulting a 19-year-old male, also listed as a transient, said Astoria Deputy Police Chief Eric Halverson.

Theft

On Friday, Samuel Johnston Jr., 27, was arrested by Astoria police on one count each of first-degree criminal trespassing, third-degree theft and a parole violation. The charges were related to the Dec. 15 theft of food from Columbia Memorial Hospital after previously being trespassing, Halverson said.

On Monday, Paul Selvy Jr., 39, was arrested by Astoria police on one count each of first-degree criminal trespassing, third-degree robbery and second-degree theft. Selvy allegedly stole a wallet from a cab driver Thursday at Madison Avenue and Eighth Street, Halverson said.

DUII

On Tuesday, Todd Voelker, 49, of Portland, was arrested by the Oregon State Police for driving while under the influence of intoxicants. State police responded to a vehicle in a ditch at milepost 2 on U.S. Highway 26 near the interchange with U.S. Highway 101 with Voelker, a 30-year-old woman and a male infant. Voelker was taken to the Seaside Police Department, where he registered a blood alcohol content of 0.08 percent. The passengers were provided a ride by the Cannon Beach Police Department.
