

OBITUARIES

Helen Mae (Lund) Altheide

Astoria

Aug. 9, 1947 — Jan. 18, 2018

Helen Mae (Lund) Altheide was taken from this life on Jan. 18, 2018, while surrounded by family at her home in Astoria, after bravely battling multiple sclerosis for many years. She was 70 years old.

Helen was born in Dallas, Oregon, on Aug. 9, 1947, to Lester and Dorothy Lund. She graduated from beauty school in 1967, and began working at Ardelle's, where she worked for several years.

In 1980 she opened her own salon, named Hilltop Hair Co., and worked until her health forced her to retire. Hair was her passion. She was a very gifted hairdresser, along with many other talents. Helen was a woman of great faith and had the biggest heart ever! She loved her husband, children and grandchildren with all her heart.

Helen is survived by her husband, Jon Altheide; a daughter and son-in-law, Erica and Marty Altheide-Nelson; grandsons Trevor and Dylan Altheide-Nelson; her brothers and sisters-in-law, Larry and Patty Lund and Richard and Sharon Lund; and many nieces and nephews who were very special to her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Lester and Dorothy Lund; her brother, Robert Lund; and her son, Mick Altheide.

A celebration of life will be held for both Helen and Mick at Bethany Lutheran Church on Saturday, Feb. 3, at 2 p.m.

The family encourages donations in Helen's memory to either the National Multiple Sclerosis Society or Lower Columbia Hospice in Astoria.

Further information can be found online at the memorial tribute for Helen at hughes-ransom.com fb.me/hughesransommortuary, where memories can be shared and photos and videos uploaded.

Funeral arrangements are by Hughes-Ransom Mortuary and Crematory of Astoria and Seaside.

Alice Collins Turina

Beaverton

Nov. 29, 1932 — Jan. 24, 2018

The second child and only daughter of Charles Edward and Alice Collins Hodges, Alice Collins Turina was born Nov. 29, 1932. She was born and raised in Portland, attended Holy Child, and was a Gamma Phi at the University of Oregon.

Turina has been a resident of Astoria, Oregon, since 1964, when her husband, Pat, moved the family there to help build the Astoria-Megler Bridge.

She loved sports and the outdoors. Her hobbies were many: sewing, cooking, canning, baking, horseback riding, skiing, biking, tennis, coaching softball and volleyball, swimming, clam digging, camping, hiking and travel.

After her divorce in 1968, Alice was a role model as a single mother. Her seven children were aged 2, 5, 8, 10, 12, 13 and 14. For five years she worked various jobs to provide for them. She was a bookkeeper, dishwasher, secretary at Clatsop Community College, and physical education instructor at Tongue Point Job Corps. She taught herself upholstery, and then taught upholstery classes at Clatsop Community College. She managed to keep the family well provided for in the large classic home at 1656 Irving St.

In the summer, she would load up the station wagon with her children, tie camping gear on top of the car, and take the family camping on the banks of the Nehalem River.

Turina loved clam digging. She would wake her children just before the break of dawn to catch the low tides for digging razor clams. Even her youngest children would dig with her. She continued this tradition with her grandchildren.

She loved being with children and playing games, singing silly songs, and making quilts for each of her grandchildren. Her favorite movie was "The Sound of Music." Family was very important to her.

Alice had a very strong faith, and loved to attend daily mass at St. Mary, Star of the Sea Parish. She taught PE and coached volleyball at Star of the Sea School.

After five years of being single, she fell in love again. Charles Turina won her heart, and they married in June 1973. Charlie was her sons' basketball coach at Star of the Sea.

Alice had a generous heart when it came to serving the needs of those less fortunate in her community. She and her husband, Charlie, (who passed in 2001) started St. Vincent DePaul Food Bank in Astoria, which continues to serve the community.

Alice was an active member of St. Mary, Star of the Sea Catholic Church, belonging to Catholic Daughters and the Altar Society. All seven children attended Star of the Sea School.

She received an award as one of the top 100 Most Influential Women of Clatsop County.

She will be fondly remembered and missed by Patrick M. O'Brien of Vancouver, Washington; her brother, Patrick Hodges (Lori) of Kirkland, Washington; and her children, Teresa Smith (Patrick) of Independence, Kathleen Arndt (Raymond) of Warrenton, Deborah Huhtala (Peter) of Tigard, Michael O'Brien (Cynthia) of Warrenton, Patrick O'Brien (Brenda) of Keizer, Timothy O'Brien (Angela) of Salem, John O'Brien (Veronique) of Paris; a foster daughter, Jocelyn Milliren (Pat) of Seaside; her 23 grandchildren; 25 great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces, nephews and friends. Her brother, Charles Edward Hodges Jr., preceded her in death in 2011.

Contributions can be made to St. Vincent de Paul Food Bank.

Our recitation to the holy rosary will be held Feb. 3, 2018, at 10:30 a.m., followed by a Mass of Christian Burial, at 11 a.m., at St. Mary, Star of the Sea Catholic Church in Astoria. A reception will follow at St. Mary's Leahy Auditorium and Turina Gymnasium in the Star of the Sea School building.

A private graveside service will be held at Greenwood Cemetery in Astoria, Oregon.

A Memorial Mass will be held at Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris, France, on Tuesday, Feb. 27, 2018, at 6:15 p.m.

Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary is in charge of the arrangements. Please sign our online guest book at caldwellsmortuary.com
