

Brittain Ashford plays Hoffman Center

MANZANITA — The Hoffman Center for the Arts hosts a performance by singer Brittain Ashford 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 4. Doors open at 7 p.m. All ages are welcome.

Hailing from Brooklyn, New York, Ashford will be making Manzanita the third stop on her month-long tour of the West Coast.

Ashford's most recent project, Prairie Empire, has received national acclaim. In a review of Prairie Empire's album, "The Salt," Las Vegas Weekly wrote: "The sheer emotive power of her voice, whether it be a whisper, or a fiery, crackling, pull-on-your-heartstrings sort of yodel, captures the pain that everyone has experienced but few can recreate."

Ashford's tour comes on the heels of her two-year venture onto the Broadway stage, where she starred beside Josh Groban in the musical "Natasha, Pierre and The Great Comet of 1812."

Nehalem songwriter Travis Champ will perform in support of Ashford and her band at the Hoffman Center.

There will be a $10 cover charge at the door. Children are welcome to attend with their parents free of charge.

Accessories and luxury items at Vintage Hardware's Pop Up Shop

Find treasures, help youngsters

ASTORIA — Luxury accessories for the self and home will be featured this month by the Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific at Vintage Hardware's Pop Up Shop.

The fun shop will be filled with amazing treasures that the League has been collecting. All proceeds go directly to their programs that promote the well-being and self-esteem of children and teens in Clatsop County.

Please support this excellent nonprofit, all-volunteer organization throughout February.
