A dark, jazzy Valentine's in Cannon Beach

CANNON BEACH — The Cannon Beach History Center & Museum invites you to a dark Valentine celebration with jazz musician Dmitri Matheny 7 p.m. Friday, Feb. 16.

Acclaimed for his warm tone, soaring lyricism and masterful technique, Matheny, an American flugelhornist, has been lauded as “one of the jazz world’s most talented horn players” (San Francisco Chronicle).

With more than 100 recordings to his credit, Matheny has released 11 albums as a band leader. His latest is “Jazz Noir,” a fresh spin on crime jazz, film noir movie themes and timeless classics.

Tickets to the concert are $15 each, $2 for children, and include complimentary refreshments. The doors will open at 6:30 p.m. with ample time to tour the museum and grab a glass of bubbly and hors d’oeuvres.

The museum has teamed up with Cannon Beach Soap Company to create a special Black Valentine Gift basket. The basket will contain a bar of their activated charcoal soap, bath scrub, salts and a black bath bomb. The basket will also include a bottle of wine and two wine glasses from the Ocean Lodge. Not to mention a tasty box of chocolates from Schwiertert’s Cones and Candy.

You may purchase raffle tickets at the concert for $5. (Have a little patience because the basket won’t be raffled off until the end of the evening.) You must be present to win.

The museum is located at 1387 S. Spruce St.

Espacio Flamenco

Fall in love with Flamenco

ASTORIA — Espacio Flamenco and the Performing Arts Center in Astoria are proud to present “Fall in Love with Flamenco,” an evening celebrating the company’s most beloved flamenco choreographies and compositions.

In this special show — held 7 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 18, at the PAC (588 16th St.) — company members choose their favorite style of flamenco to share with the audience, delivering exquisite group choreographies and soulful solo performances!

Tickets for this all-ages show are $15; children 12 and under are admitted free. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Espacio Flamenco Company is the professional performance group based out of Espacio Flamenco Studio. Dedicated to sharing Flamenco art in Portland, the company produces regular performances throughout the year with a focus on musical integrity and artistic development.

TERRY ROBB RETURNS TO PENINSULA

LONG BEACH, WASH. — Terry Robb, widely considered among the best living acoustic blues guitarists, returns to the Peninsula Arts Center 7 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 17. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Robb’s dynamic finger-picking style has amazed audiences worldwide and earned him international acclaim.

A member of the Oregon Music Hall of Fame and Cascade Blues Association Hall of Fame, Robb is an icon of the vibrant Pacific Northwest music scene. In 2011, having won the Muddy award for best acoustic guitar an unprecedented 19 consecutive years, the Cascade Blues Association honored Robb with a namesake award: the “Terry Robb Acoustic Guitar Muddy Award,” bestowed annually on a guitarist from the Northwest.

Terry Robb

Robb’s musical catalog ranges from solo acoustic guitar, ensembles and bands to full orchestras, and includes elements of fingerstyle, blues, rock, jazz, bluegrass, Latin, hymns and spirituals.

The Peninsula Arts Center is located at 504 Pacific Ave. N., Long Beach, Washington.

Admission is $15 at the door or online through Brown Paper Tickets, or call Bill Svendsen at 360-901-0962. Wine, beer and other refreshments are available for purchase.

Concerts benefit the Long Beach Peninsula Acoustic Music Foundation, a nonprofit charitable organization.
