

POINT of view

THE DAILY ASTORIAN // QUESTION OF THE WEEK

'Did you enjoy the snow?'

"It was very pleasant. Yesterday I woke up thinking it's sunny and beautiful, and I could wear short-sleeves, and today it's snowy and beautiful, and I'm wearing a sweater and jacket."

Scott Leahing, Astoria

"For the most part, but I live up on top of the hill. Nice to know we're still having snow, even with climate change, though it came a little late."

David Kazlauskas, Astoria

"Yes. I'm from Idaho, so this is like really nothing. This is pleasant snow, if there is such a thing. Last year, in Idaho, there were 3 or 4 feet, and it stayed for two to three months."

Bad weather postpones job fair

The Daily Astorian

The Clatsop County Job and Career Fair has been moved from today to Feb. 28 because of winter weather concerns.

The fair will be held in Patriot Hall on Clatsop Community College's main campus in Astoria. Local high schools will send juniors and seniors to the fair from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. The fair opens to adult job seekers from 1:15 to 3:15 p.m.

Nearly 80 employers will be at the fair, including representatives from tourism, hospitality, education, health care, banking, financial and professional services, law enforcement, retail, construction, trades, seafood processing, forestry, craft brewing and the military.

The college's main campus is located at 1651 Lexington Ave. in Astoria. For more information, visit clatsopjobfair.com

Beryl L. Tindell

Gresham

March 17, 1938 — Feb. 16, 2018

Beryl Louise Tindell died on Feb. 16, 2018, following a stroke the previous day. She was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on March 17, 1938, and was the daughter of John and Carol Insinger.

She graduated from high school in Worthington, Ohio. She was a graduate of Florida Southern College in Lakeland, Florida, where she met her husband, John Tindell, whom she married in 1959. John is a United Methodist pastor, and John and Beryl served churches in Florida, Alaska, Idaho and Oregon for more than 40 years.

Beryl's passions were her family and the many communities served by she and her husband, teaching the importance of formal education, as well as lifelong learning and travel. She was committed to advancing the education and development of everyone around her.

Beryl taught in public schools in Atlanta and Alaska. She enjoyed adventures across the globe to dozens of countries, including Thailand, Nepal, Antarctica, Galapagos, Mongolia, Australia and travel across Europe on the Orient Express.

Beryl and John have two children, Raymond of Portland, Oregon, and Cynthia of Palm Beach, Florida. Son Raymond is an attorney in Portland, having graduated from Southern Methodist University School of Law, and daughter Cynthia has a bachelor's degree from Georgetown University, and a master's degree from Harvard University, and is a senior corporate executive.

Another important part of her life was her grandson, Kevin Tindell, daughter-in-law Elena Valdes Tindell, and Elena's extended family. Beryl committed herself to Kevin's upbringing, and he is a Ph.D. student at Arizona State University, studying human tissue engineering.

She fostered her young family during a year living in Scotland, where her husband studied at the University of Edinburgh, and later in Appalachia, where he served as a chaplain of Harlan Appalachian Regional Hospital. In recent years, she resided in Gresham and Seaside, Oregon, where her husband John is pastor of the Seaside United Methodist Church.

She brought boundless joy into the life of friends and family with unique favors and treats she thought they would enjoy, and by being the uniquely beautiful person she was.

A celebration of life service for Bee will be held at Seaside United Methodist Church at 11 a.m. on March 10. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Seaside United Methodist Church.
