

'Vagina Monologues' raises money for The Harbor

ASTORIA — Clatsop Community College is pleased to announce that Eve Ensler's "The Vagina Monologues" will be performed 7 p.m. Friday and Saturday, March 9 and 10, in the Royal Nebeker Gallery at Clatsop Community College. Tickets are $10 each.

An Obie Award-winning whirlwind tour of a forbidden zone, "The Vagina Monologues" introduces a wildly diverse gathering of female voices, including a 6-year-old girl, a septuagenarian, a vagina workshop participant, a woman who witnesses the birth of her granddaughter, a Bosnian survivor of rape and a feminist happy to have found a man who "liked to look at it."

The play is directed by Mindy Stokes, the director of CCC's Lives in Transition Program (LIT) and women's studies faculty. In the last decade, Stokes and her students have produced mul-

Share the spotlight in 'Moonglow' production

TILLAMOOK — Tillamook Association for the Performing Arts (TAPA) has announced open auditions for a production of "Moonglow," written by Kim Carney and directed by Ann Harper.

Auditions will be held at the Oregon Coast Dance Center (106 Main Ave.) in Tillamook 3 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 24, and Sunday, Feb. 25.

Performances will run Friday, May 4, through Sunday, May 20.

"Moonglow" is the story of feisty Maxine and widower Joe as they and their children live through a year of fading reality. Memories and their present circumstance intertwine in this account of life in an adult care facility. Several points of view on aging and dementia are represented. Popular music of the 1930s and 40s will be highlighted.

TAPA is looking for four women and three men to fill the roles of this production.

One male and one female are over age 60, one male and one female are 35 to 60, one male and one female are 18 to 30 (some dancing will be required of these two), and one female is 25 to 50. No previous acting experience is necessary, though a willingness to work together and learn is encouraged.

Audition packets are available at tillamooktheater.com or by emailing TAPA at info@tillamooktheater.com. Packets will also be available at the audition site.

TAPA is a nonprofit community theater dedicated to providing high-quality performing arts experiences through entertainment, education and community participation.

A 'Suiteheart' deal for Tillamook animals

TILLAMOOK — The Tillamook Association for the Performing Arts presents the comedy "Suitehearts" at the Barn Community Playhouse (1204 Ivy St.). This witty production opens Friday, March 9, with a gala celebration and runs through Sunday, March 25.

Performances will be held 7 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays (March 9 and 10, 16 and 17, 23 and 24), and 2 p.m. Sundays (March 18 and 25). Doors open 30 minutes prior to curtain.

Directed by Chris Chiola and produced by Diane Cross, this production is a fundraiser for the Tillamook Animal Shelter and United Paws of Tillamook. One dollar from every ticket will be split and donated to these organizations that benefit the safety and welfare of animals in Tillamook County. There will be other opportunities to donate to these organizations, as well as information on their mission, in the lobby of the Playhouse during the show's run.

Written by William Van Zandt and Jane Milmore, the creative team behind many hit plays and TV sitcoms, the show is about two couples who vie for a New York Hotel's honeymoon suite while the doorman gets rich off the shenanigans.

Tickets are $15 per person and available at
