5 to 8 p.m.

ASTORIA — The last Second Saturday Art Walk of winter takes place 5 to 8 p.m. March 10. Come in from the chill and check out art, mingle with artists and art-lovers, enjoy refreshments and make a night of it in downtown Astoria. (Some locations open and close earlier and later.)

1. Astoria Art Loft 106 Third St.

Do you love to whittle? Turn a stick or piece of wood into something magical with just a pocket knife? If so, Jim Unwin's exhibit is for you. This master carver creates satin-smooth sculptures with a hint of Northwest traditional icons. Ours is an early opening: 1 to 4 p.m.

2. WineKraft 80 10th St. (Pier 11)

WineKraft is now featuring work from six local artists as well as live music with Two Crows Joy, starting at 7 p.m. Sip wine, eat and enjoy the arts. WineKraft is the perfect location for you to wrap up your art walking.

3. AVA Artist-in-Residence & AVA Pop-up Space 80 11th St. (above Coldwater Skate & Surf Shop)

Artist-in-Residence Stirling Gorsuch will be showing recent monotypes, linocuts and oil paintings. In the Pop-Up Space is artist Terenia Fick, who will be presenting recent work in what she calls a "very honest little show, in that all the pieces were made without an audience in mind."

4. Astoria Vintage Hardware 1162 Marine Drive

Oh Baby Couture returns as Vintage Hardware's Pop Up vendor. Smart, stylish and chic art to wear inspired children's clothing. Hand-made quality using recycled denim and embellishments creatively reconstructed at an affordable price for everyone from newborns to "glam-ma's." Just in time for Easter and Mother's Day shopping!

5. Imogen Gallery 240 11th St.

Presenting a two-person exhibition by Kim Murton and Jill Mayberg. They bring "Sea Stories," a salty and whimsical collection of sea-inspired, two-and three-dimensional pieces. Murton brings her terra cotta sculpture, and Mayberg returns with her bright mixed-media paintings. They take inspiration from South American art. The exhibition is on display through Tuesday, April 10.
