Estacada tops Seaside baseball

ESTACADA — Estacada scored five runs in its first at-bat, then held off Seaside the rest of the way for a 9-6 win over the Gulls in a nonleague baseball game Tuesday at Estacada.

The Rangers had 10 hits off three Seaside pitchers, while Travis Fenton had two doubles and four runs batted in to lead the Gulls. Payton Westerholm added a pair of singles for Seaside, which had eight hits but committed six errors.

SEASIDE — The Seaside softball team improved to 2-0 with a 19-9 win over Estacada in a nonleague game Tuesday at Broadway Field.

In her first high school at-bat, Seaside freshman Kandice Flaigg belted a home run over the fence. Teammate Jetta Ideue added a two-run, inside-the-park home run and Sequoia Shand had two triples.

Sophomore Emma Meyer picked up her first career win as a starting pitcher for the Gulls.

Matthews' big day leads Astoria over St. Helens

By GARY HENLEY
The Daily Astorian

The Astoria baseball team made it a little more dramatic than they needed to, but in the end the Fishermen walked off with a victory Tuesday afternoon, 4-3 over St. Helens.

Astoria's first game of the season at Aiken Field was also the first win for first-year coach Glen Fromwiller, whose team improves to 1-3.

The Lions scored twice in the top of the seventh to force another half-inning, but the Fishermen answered in the bottom of the seventh with an infield single by Zac Patterson scoring Burke Matthews with the game-winner.

It was the fifth year in a row for the now-annual preseason meeting between St. Helens and Astoria. After three straight wins by the Lions (2014, '15 and '16), the Fishermen have won two in a row.

Both teams scored a run in the first inning, before the Fishermen tacked on an unlikely pair of runs in the fourth.

St. Helens pitcher Kyle Harris struck out the first two batters he faced for two quick outs.

grounder that the Lions were unable to field, and Balan Kolee was hit by a pitch.

With a 1-2 count on No. 8 hitter Dylan Matteucci, the Fishermen senior poked a single to right, scoring Hirsch.

Ryan Stutznegger followed with a slow roller to second, which the Lions booted for another error, allowing Kolee to score for a 3-1 lead.

Meanwhile, the Fishermen were cruising along defensively.

After St. Helens freshman Jacobi Allen opened the top of the third with a single, Astoria pitchers Dylan Rush and Trey Hageman combined on the mound to retire 12 straight.

The Lions entered the seventh inning with their No. 7, 8 and 9 hitters, but still managed to tie the game.

With runners at first and second and two outs, Justin Olson drove a long single to right center field, scoring both runs for a 3-3 tie.

The Fishermen bounced right back in the bottom of the seventh.

Matthews belted his third double of the game to left field, then advanced to third when the Lions booted a grounder by Hageman for their fourth error of the day.

Patterson followed with a grounder to the mound, but an errant throw to second spoiled the potential double play, allowing Matthews to trot home with the game-winning run.

Rush and Hageman scattered six hits with a combined nine strikeouts and two walks, while Astoria had nine hits.

Astoria athletes back in the saddle again

The Daily Astorian

The Oregon High School Equestrian Team from Astoria High School is preparing for its biggest meet of the year, as the girls and their horses head for McMinnville next month in hopes of qualifying for the state meet.

The team has three new athletes this year, said Brittany Israel, who serves as the coach.

Astoria sophomore Angelina Linares and freshmen Kelsey Fausett and Elle Espelien join returner Rahlie Osburn.

Linares, with her horse "Ohso," shows only in performance while Osburn shows both in performance and gaming with her three horses, "Style," "Miley" and "Luke." Fausett (with "Piper") and Espelien (with "Mojo") compete in gaming only with their horses.

"It has been a great season so far. Our first meet we finished strong, while our second meet we pushed ourselves and came out short. I am proud of all the girls with their hard work," Israel said.

The team's next meet is April 12-15 in McMinnville, which will determine qualifiers for the state meet in May.

At their first meet in February, Espelien took fourth (out of 53 competitors) in the Individual Flags category, and Linares placed sixth in Western. Osburn was 12th and Fausett took 19th in Barrels.

In the Two-Man Birangle, Fausett and Osburn placed fourth. Osburn added a 10th place finish in Figure 8 competition and a fourth place showing in Steer Daubing.

In a meet earlier this month, Fausett was third in Steer Daubing, with Osburn seventh.

Espelien added a 10th-place finish in Keyhole. Osburn was 12th in both Hunt Seat Equitation and Figure 8, and Linares took 12th in Western.

Knappa also has an OHSET team, with riders Andrina Andrade, Madison Johanson, McKenzie Johanson, Haylee Skipper, Kourtney Tischer and Sierra Weirup.

Cascade holds off Astoria

The Daily Astorian

TURNER — Astoria scored a run in the top of the first inning, but Cascade followed with four in the bottom of the first on its way to a 10-5 win over the Lady Fishermen in a nonleague softball game Tuesday.

Astoria's McKailyn Rogers was 2-for-3 with a double, but the Fishermen were missing the big hits in the road contest, as they stranded nine baserunners on the day.

Cascade had nine hits and drew four walks, helping the Cougars pick up their first victory, while Astoria falls to 0-4.

The Lady Fishermen host a game today at CMH Field vs. Yamhill-Carlton, which will be playing its first game of the season.
