

Big inning catapults Scappoose over Astoria

The Daily Astorian

Astoria's 2018 league opener did not go quite as planned Tuesday.

It was a close game through three innings, before Scappoose scored seven runs in the top of the fourth for an eventual 12-1, five-inning win over the Fishermen. The Indians collected 14 hits off three Astoria pitchers in the Cowapa League opener at Tapiola Park. Meanwhile, Scappoose senior starter J.C. Gross scattered four hits, struck out six and walked five to pick up the complete-game win.

The top half of the Scappoose order had 11 hits, with doubles by Jerad Toman, Gross and sophomore Logan Travis, who was 4-for-4 and drove in five runs.

Josiah Hirsch scored the lone Astoria run in the bottom of the fourth, on an RBI single by Jalmer Johnson.

Valiants defeat Seaside on the diamond, 4-3

BEAVERTON — Meeting for the first time since their championship game on the basketball court, Valley Catholic gained a slight measure of revenge Tuesday on the baseball diamond.

Seaside out-hit the Valiants, but Valley Catholic outscored the Gulls, 4-3, in the Cowapa League season opener in Beaverton.

All seven runs were scored in the first three innings, which included a 2-2 tie after the first.

Valley Catholic starter William Schultheis got the win, but it was Valiant reliever Porter Agnew who held the Gulls scoreless over the final four innings to earn the save.

Leadoff batter Gage McFadden had three of Seaside's six hits, while Duncan Thompson had a double and drove in three runs.

On the mound, Thompson and Payton Westerholm held the Valiants to just four hits, which included a pair of doubles for Agnew.

Jackson Kunde had an eagle on the second hole and narrowly missed another on the third.

Seaside defeats Astoria in Clatsop Clash on the course

WARRENTON — It was a Clatsop Clash on the golf course Tuesday afternoon, as Astoria hosted Seaside in a Cowapa League dual golf match at the Astoria Golf & Country Club.

The Gulls scored a season-low score and improved to 1-1 in Cowapa League play with a 333-375 victory.

Seaside's Jackson Kunde was medalist with a 78. Teammate Connor Merrell finished second with an 84, followed by Seaside's Curtis Kunde (third, 85), Samson Sibony (fourth, 86) and Mason Shamion (fifth, 89).

Taylor Palmberg had Astoria's top score with a 92. Other Fishermen scores were Josh Olson (93), Connor Long (95), Daniel Paswarck (95) and Dylan Altheide-Nielsen (103).

Jackson Kunde provided the highlight of the day for the Gulls, driving the green on the par four second hole and making his putt for an eagle.

He nearly followed it up with another eagle as his second shot on the third hole hit the pin. Kunde also had birdies on the eighth and 12th holes. Shamion also had birdies on No. 2 and No. 15. Curtis Kunde added the only other birdie for the Gulls, on the sixth hole.

"It was great seeing all five guys shoot in the 80s or lower today," said Seaside coach Jim Poetsch. "The last time we did that was in the 2015 state tournament. We did a better job today of limiting our 'blow-up' holes.

"For some reason we struggled on No. 9 today, shooting two triples and two double bogeys, but otherwise we did a pretty good job of limiting damage."

He added, "I think we had one other triple and maybe a handful of doubles from the other 85 holes we played. Other than Jackson's eagle, nobody did anything spectacular. We just played solid golf."

The Gulls will have a better idea of where they stand among the top teams in the state when they travel Friday to the "Raven Rumble" at Eagle Crest Ridge Resort.
