SEASIDE — Celebrating 14 years this year, the next Seaside First Saturday Art Walk takes place 5 to 7 p.m. April 7. Visitors meet artists, view artist demonstrations and enjoy live music performances. This free event is about checking out art in the galleries and boutiques in the historic Gilbert District of downtown Seaside.

SunRose Gallery 606 Broadway St.

Spring is celebrated at SunRose this month! Featured are colorful new china mosaic flowerpots by Cathy Tippin, stained glass sun catchers by Patty Thurlby and new millifiori (million flower) earrings by Charlotte Dube. New to Astoria, "O Pato eo Peixe" will be performing Brazilian bossa nova classics and light appetizers will be served.

Moxie Shine 609 Broadway St.

Moxie features exclusive jewelry and art where everything is handmade. As a member of the Fair Trade Federation. Moxie demonstrates a genial and equitable approach to conducting business.

Bev Drew Kindley Pop-Up Gallery 608 Broadway St.

An Oregon artist, Bev Drew Kindley often paints impressionistic landscapes al artists will be on hand at the exhibit to answer questions, provide interesting facts or anecdotes.

Featured artists are Nick Brakel, Lori Bedard, Diane Copenhaver, Penelope Culbertson and JoAnn Pari-Mueller. In addition, the gallery introduces Patti Isaacs, an artist who paints on silk.

Seaside/Gearhart naturalist and biologist Neal Maine will speak about the ecology of the coastal habitat at 6 p.m. Artist Carolyn Macpherson will offer a Seaside Painting LIVE episode.

Free fused glass art demonstration by Lori Bedard. Live music by Shirley 88.

Art in the Loft Gallery at Beach Books 616 Broadway St.

Featuring the Seaside ukulele group of eight to 10 players who will be at the bookstore playing live music throughout the evening. This group plays the ukulele while jamming with others playing the harmonica. They learn together, laugh together and create beautiful music together.

Katharine Stewart, Ancient Health and Healing 10-B Holladay Drive

Featuring the "Art of Healing." Katharine Stewart graduated from the Santa Barbara College of Oriental Medicine, was one of the founding faculty members of the Phoenix Institute of Herbal Medicine and Acupuncture, where she also served as Clinic Dean, Acupuncture Chair and Clinical Supervisor. She believes that healing is an art, and there are many paths to achieving good health. Acupuncture can be one of many powerful healing modalities, and works beautifully with them all.

The Whet Spot 12 N. Holladay Drive

The Whet Spot offers a relaxed friendly, adults-only atmosphere, where patrons can catch up with old friends while enjoying craft beers, ciders and wines. No minors are permitted at any time. Featuring the art of pouring with 20 rotating taps for craft beers and ciders, a Growler filling station and offering wines by the glass.

Westport Winerv Seaside 810 Broadway St.

As part of this evening of art, Westport will be featuring its 34 unique labels featuring original art by the family and friends. At the same time, they will offer free olive oil and balsamic vinegar tasting from the Olivelle Company whose motto is "The Art of Flavor." "Filled with harmonious connections to the sea, Westport Winery is a coast traveler's dream."

Blue Bond Studio and Gallery

417 S. Holladay Drive

Amazing paintings by artist Blue Bond done in oil on canvas. Animals, people, still life and wonderful scenery pictures will delight Art Walk guests. Blue Bond is a local artist who paints and teaches in oil and acrylic to novices and experienced painters alike.

Starry Night Inn 811 First Ave.

An art motel by the sea located in a Victorian villa where each room features art from nine Portland artists. This motel offers artist residencies. The art at the motel is curated by Chris Haberman. The motel is featuring the work of Ace Troy, Ursula Barton, Judy Haas, Lea Barozzi, Gary Houston, Tom Healy and Chris Haberman.

Find additional original art during the day at Hold Fast Gallery, 611 Broadway St.; Dough Dough Bakery, 8 North Holladay Drive, Seaside Antique Mall, 726 Broadway St.; and Seaside Coffee House, 3 N. Holladay Drive.
