

TAPA seeks scripts for ongoing season

TILLAMOOK — Tillamook Association for the Performing Arts is seeking submissions from directors for the 2017-18 season, which runs through September 2018. The deadline is Saturday, April 14.

TAPA is looking for a balanced season with classics, comedies and dramas. The form can be filled out and submitted in several ways.

An submission form can be found at tillamook-theater.com under "Future Productions" in the menu. A .pdf copy of the form can be found on the website in the same space and either emailed to info@tillamooktheater.com or mailed to TAPA, P.O. Box 571, Tillamook, OR 97141.

Contact the association via phone or email to receive an emailed copy or hard copy of the form at 503-842-6305, or info@tillamooktheater.com.

Include the director's full contact information and availability. A copy of the script should be provided as part of the submission to the production committee.

Interested in directing but don't have a specific show in mind? Let us know — we can help you find the right script.

Angora Hiking Club mills about in Warrenton

WARRENTON — Angora Hiking Club's first event in April is a visit to Hampton Lumber's Warrenton Mill (550 N.E. Skipanon Drive).

Participants meet 9 a.m. Saturday, April 7, at the Lighthouse Museum, at the four-way stop in downtown. Members and will carpool from the museum to the lumber mill.

A brief video showing an overview of plant operations, will be followed by a complete plant tour, lasting about an hour.

Hiking participants will be given personal protection equipment. Everyone is asked to wear sturdy shoes and long pants.

Hampton Lumber owns roughly 140,000 acres of SFI-certified forestland in Oregon and Washington and manages roughly 300,000 acres of public forestland in British Columbia.

Hampton owned the Warrenton mill for nine years. The Warrenton division employs 142 people. It processes 40 percent Douglas fir and 60 percent Hem-Fir.

Membership is not

For additional club information, contact Bill Herold, chief guide, at 503-468-0474, or BILLN692oc@gmail.com. The hike leader is Kathleen Hudson (503-861-2802). Call by Saturday, April 7, to confirm your attendance.

Go for a waltz in Seaview

SEAVIEW, WASH. — Dance instructor Steve Carruthers teaches a workshop, "Into the Whirl: Cross-step Waltz," 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Saturday, April 7, at the Sou'wester Lodge in Seaview, Wash. The cost is $28 a person or $52 a couple.

Cross-step Waltz is a beguiling partner dance. Students will learn this turning and gliding dance that flows in a circle, with a short, easy, repeating routine. We will rotate partners and take breaks.

Carruthers, a Warrenton-Hammond native, has taught at The Viscount Dance Studio and currently conducts a weekly class at Multnomah Arts Center.

Wear light comfortable shoes, smooth soles and no heels. Dancing shoes-free is an option, but bring snug fitting socks. Bring a water bottle and hearty snack to stay fueled (hot tea and coffee will be provided).

It's OK if dancers want to practice in the open studio after the workshop. Perhaps bring a sack lunch.

Come alone or with a partner. A maximum of 18 students will be allowed to
