

Athletes of the Week

NIQUI BLODGETT
Warrenton

TRIPLE PLAY
Seaside

On March 30 at Madras, Seaside held a 6-4 lead going into the bottom of the fifth, when Madras had runners at first and second with no outs and the heart of their order at the plate. A bunt was attempted off Seaside pitcher Payton Westerholm, who made a diving catch near the first base line. Westerholm fired the ball to Ashton Boyd at first for the second out, and Boyd delivered it to Gage McFadden at second to complete the 1-3-6 triple play. The three players also combined for three hits and four runs scored in the 7-4 win.

In a March 31 doubleheader at Willamina, the senior from Jewell High School (who plays softball for Warrenton) struck out a combined 21 batters in two complete-game victories. For the day, she threw a total of 255 pitches. At the plate, Blodgett had a double in the first game with two RBIs. In Game 2, she had three doubles and a home run, driving in three more runs.

Valiants win own invitational; Astoria third

The Daily Astorian

HILLSBORO — Players from Astoria and Seaside were on the course Tuesday, as Valley Catholic hosted a Cowapa League girls golf invitational at Meriwether Golf Course in Hillsboro.

Using a modified Stableford scoring system, Valley Catholic scored the team victory with 145 points, followed by Scappoose (124) and Astoria (121), with Seaside (60) a distant fourth. Tillamook's team was incomplete.

Valley Catholic's Caroline Hobson was the individual champion with 51 points, edging Astoria's Samantha Hemsley by just one point.

Players earned points based on their individual hole score in relation to par. Hemsley finished with a personal best 94 stroke score, while Astoria teammate Jenna Travers tied for fourth with 42 points and a 102 stroke score.

Hemsley also had the only birdie by any player, on the par five 18th hole.

Tristyn McFadden and Caitlin Hillman each had 20 points to lead Seaside.

Other Astoria scores were Sarah Lertora (16 points), Gracie Cummings (13 points) and Sierra Adams (12 points). Constance Rouda, Annalyse Steele, Emilie Bonacina, Kaitlyn Boutin, Xochitl Perez and Yacin Kim also participated.

Sydney Rapp (17 points) and Madi Grimm (3) also competed for the Gulls.

Astoria's next match will be April 12 at Quail Valley, in a tournament hosted by Scappoose.

Roscoe takes over coaching duties

By GARY HENLEY

Gary Henley/The Daily Astorian
Josh Olson and the Astoria boys golf team will be competing in Class 4A's toughest district.

The Astoria boys golf team is under new management. Peter Roscoe takes over for Kevin Goin, and Roscoe is hoping to cook up an eventual winner for the Fishermen.

For the time being, it's a young group.

Of the five golfers who competed for Astoria in last year's regional tournament, only two return.

So it's largely a new-look team on the course.

Still, "There's potential there," said Roscoe, who on their short game. That's always such a big factor at this level."

Kirk Fausett and Brian Wilder were Astoria's top two finishers in last year's regional tournament, and both were seniors.

On the other hand, Taylor Palmberg had Astoria's best score in the league tournament, and he returns for his junior season, as does Josh Olson.

Other returners with varsity experience are sophomore Dylan Altheide-Nielsen and junior Conner Long.

The list of newcomers includes some promising talent in Jake Ficken, Tryon Matlock, sophomore Aaron Rickenbach and junior Marcus Soderstrom, along with Daniel Paswarck, a German foreign exchange student.

Of course, getting anywhere in Special District 1 will be tough. For a remarkable five years in a row, the 4A state champion has come from Astoria's district (Seaside in 2014 and '15, Crook County in 2016, Scappoose in 2017). Contending state favorites this year include Seaside and Valley Catholic.

served as an assistant coach for Astoria a few years back. "We've got some good young players. Like it is with most high school golfers, we'll be working a lot

Dayton defeats Warrenton, 10-0

The Daily Astorian

WARRENTON — The Warrenton Warriors hosted a Class 3A softball power Wednesday afternoon.

And although it was close for a while, the softball power left with a victory, as Dayton scored a 10-0 win over Warrenton in a nonleague game.

The Pirates — who have played in the last three state championship games (winning in 2015) — had a much tougher time against the Warriors than the final score indicates.

Dayton was clinging to a 2-0 lead through four complete innings, before scoring four runs in the top of the fifth. The Pirates added four more in the sixth, then held the Warriors scoreless for the 10-run, mercy rule victory.

Dayton scored on a wild pitch in the first inning, then added a run in the third.

Meanwhile, Warrenton was having a tough time against Pirates pitcher Anika Heidt, who gave up just four hits, with 11 strikeouts and three walks. The Warriors ended up stranding all seven of their baserunners.

Warrenton pitcher Niqui

Blodgett struck out two and walked four, while Dayton collected 12 hits.

Heidt helped her cause by going 3-for-3 with two doubles and driving in three runs.

Dayton's Malina Ray and Katie Jacks scored three runs apiece, as the No. 3-ranked Pirates improved their overall record to 7-5. Four of Dayton's losses came in nonleague games on a recent road trip to California.

Warrenton (3-5) hosts a nonleague game Friday at 4:30 p.m. with Knappa, before beginning league play next week vs. Rainier.
