THE DAILY ASTORIAN // QUESTION OF THE WEEK

'How do you feel about movies being filmed in Astoria?'

"I feel it's good for the community. It brings in revenue. Plus, people could be extras if they wanted."

Pam Marshall, Gearhart

"Why not? It's a good time, and great exposure."

Paul Williams, Astoria

"I just moved here. I think it's cool. They didn't have that sort of thing where I used to live. I think the last movie filmed in Eugene was 'Animal House' in the 1970s."

Broadway Middle School principal steps down

By BRENNA VISSER
The Daily Astorian

SEASIDE – The principal of Broadway Middle School announced his resignation Tuesday to the Seaside School District board.

After serving two years as assistant principal and another two as principal, Robert Rusk said he decided to step down at the end of this school year to move to Vancouver, Washington, to address "family needs." He has taken a job as the principal of Seton Catholic College Prep, a high school in the Vancouver area.

"(Seaside) is an amazing community. The students, the staff, the supportive board ... It's going to be really difficult to leave," Rusk said. "Even though I've only been here four years, this community feels like family."

Rusk said some of his favorite moments as principal included seeing Seaside's soccer team head to the state tournament as a volunteer coach, as well as getting to greet all of the students every morning at the front doors.

The school board unanimously accepted the resignation, but with a collective sense of sadness. Superintendent Sheila Roley said Rusk is known for his ability to connect with students, and commended him for "building a culture of positive behavior and high expectations" at the middle school. The search process to find Rusk's replacement will begin immediately.

"(Rusk) has done a wonderful job. We'll miss him very much," Roley said. "I'm sure he'll be as much of an asset to (Seton Catholic College Prep) as he was for us."

OBITUARIES

Dorothy Faye Smith Treharne Everett, Washington Dec. 4, 1928 — April 10, 2018

Dorothy Faye Smith Treharne, 89, of Everett, Washington, passed away with family by her side on Monday, April 10, 2018, in Everett, Washington.

Dorothy was born Dec. 4, 1928, in Colton, Washington, to parents Kenneth M. and Lenore Faye Smith, joining four older brothers, Everett, Eddie, Chet and Bruce, who all preceded her in death.

Dorothy attended school in Washington state and Idaho, and married Edwin Treharne on Jan. 1, 1946, in Portland, Oregon. They lived many years in Seaside, Oregon, where they raised their family. Years later they divorced.

Dorothy owned and operated the Gulls Nest gift boutique in Seaside for many years. She was a talented home décor decorator and enjoyed gardening. She also loved to play golf with her friends at Astoria Golf and Country Club until she moved from the area to live closer to her children in her later years.

Dorothy is survived by her four children, Kenneth Treharne (Karen) of Tacoma, Washington, Ed Treharne (Eileen) of Svensen, Oregon, Cynthia Treharne (Larry McKeeman) of Everett, Washington and David Bux of Tacoma, Washington; as well as grandchildren, Chelsea, Maureen, Sam, Tyler and Kayla; and several great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. She has two half-sisters, Cheri Folk of Gearhart, Oregon, and Charline Smith of Wendell, Idaho. A half-brother, Jan Smith of Lake Havasu City, Arizona, preceded her in death.

Dorothy Treharne

Her vivacious personality will be missed by all who knew and loved her. Per her request, there will not be a memorial service.

The family asks that memorials be made to a charity of one's choice or the Astoria Ladies Golf Club Scholarship, in care of the Astoria Golf and Country Club, P. O. Box 148, Astoria, OR 97103.

Russell 'Rusty' Donaldson Svensen Aug. 20, 1950 — April 10, 2018

Svensen resident Russell Eugene Donaldson passed away April 10, 2018, at home, after a four-and-a-half year battle with colon cancer.

He was born Aug. 20, 1950, in Foley, Alabama. He was preceded in death by his parents, Barbara Callander Donaldson and John Eugene Donaldson. He was their youngest child, and only son. The Coast Guard family lived in Alabama, Mississippi, Texas, Astoria and the Philippine Islands before settling in Svensen, Oregon.

He was a 1968 graduate of Knappa High School, and longtime supporter of the Knappa Loggers. In high school, he was an enthusiastic athlete in all sports, and was voted Most Inspirational Player.

During the Vietnam era, he served his country as an aviation electronics technician in the Coast Guard. Upon honorable discharge, he returned home to marry his grade school sweetheart, Marsha Lynn Aho. Using the GI Bill, he attended Clatsop Community College, transferred to Lane Community College, and completed the respiratory therapy program.

In 1976, while living in the Willamette Valley, their son, Kurt, was born. Rusty worked at Good Samaritan hospitals in both Eugene and Corvallis, but the "call of home" was strong, so they moved back to the Knappa/Svensen area. Rusty served as an Astoria fireman for five years, and then worked at the Wauna Mill, retiring after 20 years. He always took pride in his work, and made sure the napkins he made were of the highest quality. Before retiring from the mill, he had become a journeyman oiler.

When granddaughter Miriam was born, he retired from the mill and became a stay-at-home grandfather. Never was there such a hands-on grandfather. As Miriam grew and started school, Rusty started a new "career" in retail at the Coast Guard Exchange, where he could interact with Coast Guard families because he, also, had grown up as a child of a Coastie.

For many years he enjoyed photography, and was able to combine his love of sports with photography, taking photos at Knappa High School games, team photos, and doing senior pictures. Some of his photos were used in The Daily Astorian. As a sideline, he also grew Christmas trees for many years.

He was very attached to numerous family dogs, having a special fondness for Trina, their Dalmatian for 13 years, then Huey, Archer, Daisy and Doc.

He leaves behind a loving wife of 47 years, Marsha Aho Donaldson; son, Kurt Donaldson and his fiancée, Willow Wagner, of Svensen; sister, Jennifer Mathre of Portland; sister, Martha McGinty and her husband, Dale, of San Diego, California; brother-in-law, Jack Aho and his wife, Joyce, of Svensen; granddaughter, Miriam Donaldson of Svensen; nieces, Paige McCord and family of Newport Beach, California, Shannon Lackey and family of Knappa, Stefanie Craft and family of Damascus, Oregon, and Merrill Penuel and family of Sandy, Oregon; very special "BuddyJoe" Sherry Rusinovich of Lewis and Clark; several grandnephews and nieces, who always had a good time with him; the current family canine, Doc Donaldson; and many relatives and friends near and far. Our lives were better for sharing laughs with him, and knowing this honorable man. He will be missed.

The family thanks oncologists Drs. Sahan Rosenbaum and Amrita Desai, and Kristy Haglund of Lower Columbia Hospice, and the oncology nurses and staff at Columbia Memorial Hospital.

A celebration of life will be held Sunday, April 29, from 1:30 to 4 p.m. at Knappa High School.

Memorial contributions may be sent to Lower Columbia Hospice, 2111 Exchange St., Astoria, OR 97103, or the Knappa Schools Foundation, 42915 Old Highway 30, Astoria, OR 97103.

CORRECTION

Manufactured homes — Manufactured and tiny homes were part of the discussion when the Astoria City Council, city staff, the Planning Commission and other stakeholders began discussing code amendments for accessory dwelling units. However, these structures ultimately were not included in the part of city code adopted by the City Council in 2017 that addresses accessory dwelling units. A 1A story on Tuesday incorrectly said manufactured and tiny homes were not part of the original discussion.
