ARAM ARSLANIAN

Friday • 4 - 6:15 PM • Exhibit Hall Stage

Aram is a singer-songwriter, producer, composer and multi-instrumentalist with over 20 years of experience. Some of the artists he has supported include Lisa Marie Presley (music director 2002-2003), Sandra Bernhard, Rilo Kiley, Fabian, The Watson Twins, Fernando and Lincoln's Beard. He has released four CDs and toured as a solo artist and leading the band Orphan Train. Aram has created scores for over 50 plays and provided music and placed songs for several major networks.

BELLA AND RON BAND

Sunday • 11AM - 1 PM • Exhibit Hall Stage

Ron Shaffer is an award-winning songwriter with airplay on such shows as "Evening Becomes Eclectic" on KCRW. His CD, "Broken Windows", is available on iTunes and CDbaby. His songs "Broken Windows" and "Can't Always Tell" are on John Colbert's latest record. He's had songs signed to publishers in LA, NY and Nashville. Bella's voice has been compared to Adele, and together they are like a father/daughter Simon and Garfunkel.

BROWNSMEAD FLATS

Sunday • 11 AM - 1 PM • Barn Stage

The Brownsmead Flats have been performing throughout the Northwest for over 25 years. Their acoustic music may best be described as "Crabgrass," which they liken to a folk/bluegrass style with an emphasis on vocal harmonies. A variety of instruments are played by the quintet, including hammered dulcimer, mandolin, fiddle, banjo, guitar, harmonica and bass.
