

Bayside Singers perform spring concerts

Bayside Singers will hold their spring concerts 2 p.m. Saturday, April 28, at the Ocean Park Lutheran Church (24002 U St., Ocean Park, Wash.) and 2 p.m. Saturday, May 5, at the Chinook Event Center (aka the Restored Chinook School Gymnasium).

Under the direction of Barbara Poulshock, with the accompaniment of Barbara Bate, this group has been singing together for more than 10 years and has been preparing for the spring concerts since January.

Included in the program will be the beautiful and haunting "Amor de mi Alma," a group favorite. And a concert is never complete without a gospel selection

CATE GABLE PHOTO

Barbara Poulshock

— this time the entertaining "Crawfish."

In addition, the choir will perform selections written by Poulshock, including her recently finished "The Three Ravens." And, as a special treat for audiences, Bayside Singers will perform portions of the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta "Trial by Jury," a funny and challenging work.

Available at the concert will be a soon-to-be-published book of 14 compositions by Poulshock. A donation of $20 will be requested.

Be sure to mark your calendars for these two concerts. While the shows are free, a suggested donation of $10 helps support the group's purchase of quality choral music for our community to enjoy.

There will be an intermission with light refreshments.

COURTESY BAYSIDE SINGERS

Bayside Singers perform selections from Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta "Trial by Jury" in this year's spring concerts.

Latin dance night funds scholarships

ASTORIA — Clatsop Community College's Latino Club will share their love of dance and Mexican snacks with the community by hosting a Latin dance night to raise funds for college scholarships.

The dance will take place Friday, April 27, at the Astoria Arts & Movement Center (342 10th St.) in Astoria. Doors open at 8 p.m., close at 1 a.m. Admission is $10.

Enjoy music by local DJ Sonido Eres and traditional Mexican snacks and juices will be for sale. Bring the whole family for a night of fun!

For more information, contact Lydia Eastman at leastman@clatsopcc.edu or Eileen Purcell at epurcell@clatsopcc.edu.

Acoustic blues master returns to KALA

ASTORIA — Terry Robb — one of the top acoustic blues guitarists of our time — returns to KALA in Astoria 8 p.m. Friday, April 27.

The price is $16; advance tickets are available at libertyastoria.org. Pick-up will-call tickets will be available at the door. Doors open at 7:30 p.m. People 16 and older may attend. There will be a full bar. KALA is located at 1017 Marine Drive in Astoria.

Robb's signature fingerstyle has earned him international acclaim from worldwide audiences, music critics and his distinguished peers. Incorporating elements from the Mississippi Delta music tradition, ragtime, country, swing and free jazz, Robb has built a blues sound that has made him a legend in a music career spanning more than four decades.

COURTESY KALA

Guitarist Terry Robb has shared the stage with B.B. King, Albert Lee, Joe Cocker, Bo Diddley and other all-stars.

With more than 15 albums to his name, he has shared the stage with B.B. King, Albert Lee, Joe Cocker, Bo Diddley, George Thorogood, Leo Kottke, Johnny Winter and other all-stars.

Robb has been inducted into the Oregon Music Hall of Fame and Cascade Blues Association Hall of Fame.

Robb was born in British Columbia, raised in the U.S. and lives in Portland.

In Raymond, 31 raise their voices

RAYMOND, WASH. — The Willapa Harbor Chorale presents their annual spring concert 7 p.m. Sunday, April 29, at the historic Raymond Theatre (323 Third St.).

Thirty-one singers will join their voices to perform a variety of popular stage and screen music, including selections from "Les Misérables" and "The Phantom of the Opera," and Irving Berlin's rendition of "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor" and "God Bless America."

The chorale is directed by Rick Gauger, with James Worlton as accompanist and a large cast of soloists.

There is no charge for the concert, though donations are accepted. A free reception across the street from the theater at the Raymond Elks Lodge No. 1292 follows the concert.