

Cruise on down to Camp Rilea car show

WARRENTON — The 50s Cruise Reunion Car Show at Camp Rilea military base in Warrenton will be held 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, April 28.

Hosted by the Lower Columbia Classics Car Club, the show is in its 18th year and going strong.

If you are like most guys, the only difference between you and your kids is the price of your toys. That holds true for a lot of gals, too.

If this sounds like you, check out this event. It's not only collector cars but vintage trailers, drag cars and at least one 2,500-horsepower funny car on display. And it's open to antique tractors! Stop by and check it out.

General admission for spectators is $2 per person; children under 12 are

Who was York?

ILWACO, WASH. — The Oregon and Washington chapters of the Lewis & Clark Trail Heritage Foundation will sponsor a free lecture at the Columbia Pacific Heritage Museum at 2 p.m. Saturday, April 28.

Ron Craig, videographer and executive director of the Astoria International Film Festival, will share his documentary "Who Was York?"

The video was completed for the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial and remains a valuable resource to learn the story of William Clark's slave who fully participated in the Corps of Discovery's overland expedition. Much of the video was filmed locally and features several area residents.

Craig will describe how the research and filmmaking impacted his own life as an African American who grew up in Portland and how he talks about York to young audiences today.

The Columbia Pacific Heritage Museum is located at 115 S.E. Lake St. in Ilwaco. For more information, call 360-642-3446 or visit columbiapacificheritagemuseum.org.
