College MERTS campus holds open house

ASTORIA — The community is invited to the MERTS campus open house 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Friday, May 4. This exciting one-day event includes fun activities for all ages, demonstrations and vendor displays.

The Clatsop Community College MERTS (Marine and Environmental Research and Training Station) campus, Oregon's designated Maritime Training College, houses the College's Maritime Science Department, Fire Response & Research Center, the Living Machine and the Industrial & Manufacturing Technology Center, including Automotive Technology, Welding and Historic Preservation and Restoration.

All programs will feature displays and interactive demonstrations, and tours of the college's training vessel M/V Forerunner.

Visitors can also meet representatives from Clatsop's Business department and college admissions, try out a virtual welding machine and explore the National Guard and Air National Guard displays.

The MERTS campus is located three miles east of Astoria off U.S. Route 30 on Liberty Lane. Enjoy the afternoon visiting the campus and explore the Clatsop Community College MERTS educational facilities.

For more information, call 503-338-7670 or visit the Clatsop Community College website at clatsopcc.edu/community/upcoming-events/merts-open-house-2018.

See the stars at CCC fundraiser

ASTORIA — "The Stars are Out Tonight" at the Clatsop Community College Foundation's annual Arts & Experiences Auction & Dinner scholarship fundraiser. Community members are invited to attend the evening event that will be celebrating CCC stars — students, employees, donors, guests and volunteers — on Saturday, May 5, in Patriot Hall on the Clatsop Community College Lexington campus in Astoria.

Doors open at 5 p.m. offering a silent auction and complimentary champagne service before the dinner and main live auction at 6:30 p.m.

"I am delighted to be a part of this wonderful event and especially to know that with the financial support of members of our community, we are able to help many CCC students achieve their goals and reach for the stars!" said Susan Bartlett, the college Foundation chair.

Attendees may bid on auction items including works of art provided by local and regional artists, and experiences such as trips to Italy, Bali and regional experience packages. The Silver Salmon Grille will provide dinner.

Reservations are $85 per person. To make reservations and for more information visit clatsopcc.edu/foundation, or contact Sunny Klever, foundation director, at 503-338-2306 or email sklever@clatsopcc.edu.
