SEASIDE — Celebrating 14 years in 2018, the next Seaside First Saturday Art Walk, takes place 5 to 7 p.m. May 5.

Visitors meet artists, check out original art, view artist demonstrations, sip wine, snag appetizers by favorite restaurants or personal chefs, and enjoy live music.

The free event is all about seeing and selling art in the sponsoring businesses between Holladay Drive and Broadway Street in the historic area of downtown Seaside.

1. Starry Night Inn

811 First Ave.

An art motel by the sea located in a Victorian villa where each room features art from nine Portland artists. This motel offers artist residencies. The art at the motel is curated by Chris Haberman. Featuring the art of Ursula Barton, a mural artist who uses the powerful metaphor of the bridges of Portland to create gallery work and street art.

2. Westport Winery Seaside

810 Broadway St.

Westport will showcase its 34 unique labels featuring original art by family and friends. At the same time, they will offer free olive oil and balsamic vinegar tasting from the Olivelle Company whose motto is "The Art of Flavor." "Filled with harmonious connections to the sea, Westport Winery is a coast traveler's dream."

3. Blue Bond Studio, Art School and Gallery

417 S. Holladay Drive

Featuring amazing paintings by artist Blue Bond done in oil on canvas. Animals, people, still life and wonderful pictures of scenery delight guests. Bond is also a teacher and enjoys passing on his vast knowledge to novices and experienced painters alike.

4. The Whet Spot

12 N. Holladay Drive

The Whet Spot offers a relaxed, friendly, adults-only atmosphere, where patrons can catch up with old friends while enjoying craft beers, ciders and wines. No minors permitted at any time. Featuring the art of pouring with 20 rotating taps for craft beers and ciders, a growler-filling station and offering wines by the glass. Featuring Northwest artists Alicia Combs and Adain Combs, Lisa King and Dolores Matthys.

5. Katharine Stewart, Ancient Health and Healing

10-B Holladay Drive

Katharine Stewart graduated from the Santa Barbara College of Oriental Medicine, was one of the founding faculty members of the Phoenix Institute of Herbal Medicine and Acupuncture, where she also served as Clinic Dean, Acupuncture Chair and Clinical Supervisor. She believes that healing is an art, and there are many paths to achieving good health. Acupuncture can be one of many powerful healing modalities and works with them all.

6. Dough Dough Bakery

8 North Holladay Drive

Featuring Tanya Gardner, who paints in triptychs using mixed media with acrylics on canvas. Also featuring artistic chef Jonathan Hoffman, who has his fingers in a lot of pies: He is an entrepreneur who works with local farmers, fisherman and foragers to use the freshest ingredients to feature in his culinary fares.

Artist statement: "One event had a major impact on my direction as an artist. It probably has an influence on me. The Promise Keepers organization held an event in Washington, DC. After attending that event, I had a chance to visit the National Gallery of Art, which was having an exhibit of the late 1800's painter Thomas Moran. This introduced me to the Hudson River School painters, their spiritual views of the Creation and has become a whole new level of painting to seek to strive for. Since that time, I have concentrated primarily on the west coast for subject matter, taking several trips up through central and northern California, Washington, Oregon." — Lee Munsell.

The Pop-Up Studio and Gallery, is sponsored by the Gilbert Block Building and Fairweather Gallery.

11. Moxie Shine

609 Broadway St.

Featuring exclusive jewelry and art where everything is handmade, as a member of the Fair Trade Federation, Moxie demonstrates a genial and equitable approach to conducting business. All of the wonderful fair trade and handmade clothing, jewelry and home decor gifts you have come to expect are waiting to be discovered.
