

Castletown August 19

Every show is a party! With the fiery hot AmeriCeltic fiddle tunes featuring talented violinist Katie Jane Lubiens and backed by some thumping drum beats, a hopping bass line, and full-bodied acoustic guitar, it's impossible not to dance to their music. Blues, jazz, rock'n roll, and even classical. www.castletownpdx.com

Double J and the Boys July 1 & September 9

Everyone loves this foot-stomping folk/country band, with a mix of classics and funny originals, energetic fiddle tunes and real live yodeling. Look for Double J and the Boys on Facebook

Marianna Flemming June 3

A professional musician for more than 30 years winning numerous songwriting awards for her jazzy, bluesy sound. A fine singer, composer and guitarist. She has opened for many national acts and has appeared on many stages across the country. Her music is played on radio stations around the world.

Floating Glass Balls July 29

A happy mix of Appalachia and Bayou Tech by way of Jamaica, Amsterdam and Astoria they call Beachgrass.

Greg Parke

May 27, Sept. 16 & 30 and Oct. 14

Greg Brings his popular mix of soulful ballads and foot-tapping dance music to the Market again this season! Featuring original tunes. www.gregparke.com

SPONSORED BY FIVE ZERO TREES

Ray Prestegard July 22 & October 7

Ray Prestegard will be performing original songs this year at the Astoria Sunday Market. Featuring Banjo, Ukulele, Dobro, Slide Guitar and a Box Guitar made by a ASM vender Allan Matta .

RJ Marx Quartet July 15

From the north coast featuring a world-class front-line of saxophone and guitar performing an array of styles ranging from traditional to complex, inspired by the major jazz composers from the '40s through '70s.

SheckPea

July 17

A local band, local flavor. Blues, soul, jazz and world music with Shecky Metzner & Pee Wee Patenaude.

SPONSORED BY FIVE ZERO TREES

The Merlins - Ian & Maia Clemons June 24

The Merlins are Ian (Button Accordion and singing) and Maia Clemons (Fiddle) are Western Oregon's premier father-and-daughter folk music duo. With a wide palette of musical influences from Quebecois dance tunes, English farming songs, Irish reels, to French sailor shanties.

Two Crows Joys September 23

Astoria's best-kept secret. Country, Celtic and classic rock influences make for a unique blend of original music. www.twocrowsjoymusic.com

Swing Cats of Astoria August 26

A four-piece ensemble of coast musicians playing jazz -swing era, standards, and progressive; bossa nova; blues; and an occasional rock and roll piece.

Elena Welch May 13 & August 5

Performing in Portland, Elena is a jazz and blues vocalist greatly influenced by her 10 years of living in the music city of Chicago. She has four CDs to her credit.

AUGUST 5 SHOW SPONSORED BY FIVE ZERO TREES

music @ the market

astoriasundaymarket.com