The cruise ship Regatta has canceled its Thursday visit to Astoria.

Cruise ship Regatta bypasses Astoria

The Daily Astorian

A Thursday visit by the Regatta has been canceled.

The cruise ship was scheduled to bring more than 600 passengers to the Port of Astoria. The luxury cruise ship Silver Explorer, which visited Astoria earlier this month, is still scheduled to dock from 3:30 to 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Bruce Conner, cruise ship marketer for the Port, said the Regatta had to sail farther out to sea to bypass Navy maneuvers and lost a day of travel amid inclement weather. The ship is bypassing Astoria to reach Ketchikan, Alaska, on time, he said.

The Regatta is scheduled to return to Astoria in October. For a full schedule of cruise ships, visit www.portofastoria.com

ON THE RECORD

DUII

• At 1:03 a.m. Tuesday, David P. Rhoadarmer, 35, of Astoria, was arrested by Astoria police on Alameda and Melbourne avenues and charged with driving under the influence of intoxicants and refusing to take a breath test.

Assault

• At 1:50 p.m. Monday, Anthony Vincent Fana, 37, of University Place, Washington, was arrested by Oregon State Police at the John Day Boat Ramp and charged with fourth-degree assault. After arguing with another man about a method of backing a trailer onto the ramp, Fana allegedly pushed the 69-year-old man off the dock and into the water. The alleged victim was bleeding from his hands, wrists and head and complained of back soreness.

OBITUARIES

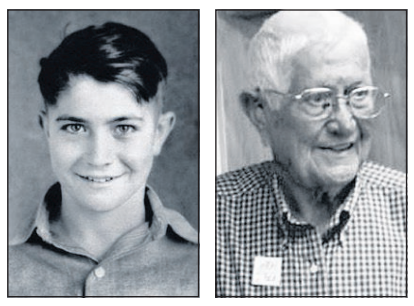
Jack Lester Birkby

Arch Cape

May 20, 1925 — May 6, 2018

Jack Lester Birkby was born in Sidney, Iowa, May 20, 1925, and died May 6, 2018, in Arch Cape, Oregon, at the age of 93.

Staff Sgt. Birkby, while stationed at Fort Lewis, met and married Dorothy Yost, his wife of 61 years. Together they raised their three daughters in Lakewood, Washington, and later Milwaukie, Oregon. Family adventures were highlighted by skiing Mount Rainier and Mount Hood, and camping trips to national parks, Canada and the Olympic Peninsula, and enjoying the waters of Puget Sound — but once they bought their cabin in Arch Cape, all transitioned into beachcombers.



Jack Birkby

Jack lived most of his adult life in the Pacific Northwest. He was a salesman by trade and by heart, working into his 90s. He began his career working for Pennzoil, owned a Chevron service station in Tacoma, and formed J.B. Sales serving as a manufacturer's representative for Meguiar's polishes and various automotive product lines.

Upon retirement, Jack started Debra's Surplus True-Value Hardware in Seaside, Oregon, with his son-in-law, Paul Dochow.

He and Dorothy RV'ed around the country, basing out of Yuma, Arizona. Selling was all about talking with people, learning about them, and sharing stories and friendships. There was always a place for a stranger turned friend to join the family for a meal, and rest their head for a night, in his Arch Cape home.

Making friends with Jack, it didn't matter one's educational background, social status, nationality or age. He was very trusting of strangers — a gracious, kind man, setting an example to others as to how we should treat people. Jack was so accommodating for people coming to their home, welcoming them with open arms, and offering them to come camp out on his lawn, or offering them a bed. Living at the edge of the Pacific Ocean, he proudly shared photos of his "backyard."

Among Jack's survivors are his daughters, Virginia Birkby, Jackie Dochow and Debra Birkby; son-in-law, Paul Dochow; sister, Ruthella Birkby Barnard; grandchildren, Hillary Dochow, Mark Dochow and Jolene Pauker; and great-grandchildren, Victoria Dochow, Linkin Dochow and Colton Pauker. Jack also leaves behind many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Dorothy; his brother, Robert Birkby; and parents Lucretia Isabel Carter Birkby and Lawrence Virgenice "Shorty" Birkby.

Jack was laid to rest May 17, 2018, with his wife, Dorothy, at Willamette National Cemetery in Portland, Oregon, with military honors.

James (Harry) Hulon

Warrenton

April 6, 1935 — May 6, 2018

James (Harry) Hulon, of Warrenton, Oregon, passed away in Hillsboro on May 6, 2018, at the age of 83.

Harry was born in Chester, South Carolina, on April 6, 1935, to Bessy and Jesse Hulon. Preferring his middle over his given name, Harry (which everyone knew him as) was one of 11 children; having seven brothers and three sisters. At the age of 17, Harry enlisted in the Navy and proudly served his country during the Korean War. After his honorable discharge from the Navy, Harry found his way west to Oregon. It was here that he met and married Donna Sue Schultz.

James (Harry) Hulon

Getting work at Georgia Pacific Railway meant moving to South Carolina for a spell. Securing a position at the Astoria Plywood Mill brought them back to Oregon, where he also spent several years commercial fishing on an old Columbia River bowpicker. When he wasn't working, Harry had several hobbies which included fishing, hunting and woodworking.

He and Donna raised three children and shared 50 years of marriage together before she preceded him in death in 2004.

He was generous with his time and ability to fix anything. He was a good man, and a wonderful father, and will be missed by all who got to know him. May you rest in peace, Harry Hulon.

Harry is survived by his three children, John (Christine) Hulon of Knappa, Oregon, Jama Hulon (Kimberly Zufolt) of Astoria, Oregon, and Kathy Hulon of Warrenton, Oregon; and two grandchildren, Travis Magers of Warrenton, Oregon, and Whitney Hulon of Portland, Oregon.

The family would like to invite those who knew Harry for a celebration of life, which is scheduled for Saturday, June 2, 2018, at 2 p.m. Since it is at a private residence, the family requests that you please contact Kathy Hulon at kathhulon@gmail.com for further details.

Interment of Harry's cremated remains will take place at a later date at the city of Astoria's Ocean View Cemetery.

Funeral arrangements are in the care of Hughes-Ransom Mortuary and Crematory of Astoria. Please visit the online memorial tribute for Harry, where you can sign the guest book, share your favorite memories and/or upload pictures or video at hughes-ransom.com and fb.me/hughesransommortuary
