

2nd Saturday

ART WALK

June

9

5 to 8 p.m.

ASTORIA — The final Astoria Second Saturday Art Walk of spring 2018 takes place 5 to 8 p.m. June 9. It's a chance to enjoy new art, chat with artists and art-lovers, and savor refreshments and the lively downtown nightlife. (Some locations open and close earlier and later.)

1. WineKraft

80 10th St. (Pier 11)

Now featuring work from six local artists as well as live music with Two Crows Joy at 7 p.m. Sip wine, eat and enjoy the arts. WineKraft is perfect for you to wrap up your art walking.

2. KALA

1017 Marine Drive

KALA features work by Sid Deluca, Joi Smith, Renee Rowe, Tom Hilton, Anne Eskelin, Bill Atwood and Paul Soriano. Painting, collage and photography.

3. McVarish Gallery

1060 10 St.

Presenting paintings by Brian Sostrom. Living in Idaho, Sostrom grew up in the Pacific Northwest with strong ties to Astoria. If any painter can paint weather, he can, using open acrylic on panel and creating mesmerizing scenes of clouds and water. These paintings are breathtaking.

4. AVA Artist-in-Residence

80 11th St. (above Coldwater Skate & Surf Shop)

Jill Mulholland uses light as her primary medium, creating works based in color, reflection, glow and shadow. Jill takes over the second floor with her exhibition "Light and Dark." There will be "light confetti," artworks that throw color over walls and ceilings. "Light Cairn" exhibited in total darkness and a series called "Elephant Necklaces."

5. Astoria Vintage Hardware

1162 Marine Drive

Our new Pop Up Shop for June and Artist in Residence is Portland artist Jill Torberson. Torberson primarily works in steel, creating custom iron-work for homes and public spaces. Featured pieces will be designed and fabricated from found objects.

6. Imogen Gallery

240 11th St.

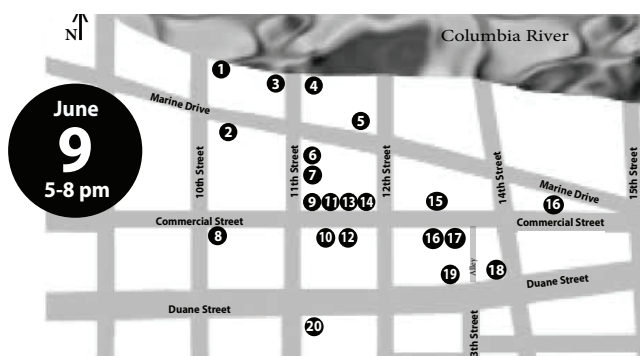

Linked by backgrounds in farming and animal husbandry, we present a dual exhibition for Kim Hamblin and Christopher Wagner. Hamblin's series of intricate hand-cut paper assemblages explore her ongoing interest in mycology (mushrooms). Wagner provides carved and painted reclaimed wood sculpture depicting man's relationship with animals, plus his interest in mythology.

7. Cargo

240 11th St.

Back to Japan for summer . . . lots of small Japanese furniture, wooden boxes, Japanese indigo, vintage kimonos, Japanese signs and ceramics.

Continued on Page 15

COURTESY TEMPO GALLERY

'MP. MARI ANNA,' an acrylic painting by Edward Peterson at Tempo Gallery

COURTESY RIVERSEA GALLERY

'A Peekaboo Look' by Donna Lee Rollins, a tri-color gum dichromate print at RiverSea Gallery

COURTESY OLD TOWN FRAMING COMPANY

This photo by Sara Absher is part of her series 'Oregon in Black and White,' on view at Old Town Framing Company

COURTESY LUMINARI ARTS

Jewelry by Vicki Malone's 'Blue Artichoke' line, out of West Linn

COURTESY FORSYTHEA

A bead mosaic by Zemula Fleming, now at Forsythea

COURTESY IMOGEN GALLERY

'Astrogoat,' a wood carving by Christopher Wagner, now at Imogen Gallery