

SPORTS

CONTACT US

Gary Henley | Sports Reporter
ghenley@dailyastorian.com

FOLLOW US

facebook.com/
DailyAstorianSports

Astoria Ford tops Clatskanie, 5-1

The Astoria Junior State baseball team opened summer play Tuesday night at Tapiola Park, where the Astoria Ford Fishermen defeated Clatskanie 5-1.

Dylan Junes pitched five innings of no-hit ball, with four strikeouts and one walk. Adam Feldman and Dylan Rush both pitched in relief, with Rush giving up the lone Clatskanie hit.

Astoria Ford scored two runs in the first inning, and added a run in the fourth and two in the fifth.

Will Reed and Balan Kolee each had two hits and a double to lead the Fishermen, while Ebin Hillard also had two hits.

"Our pitching and defense were both great, for having been off for so long," said Astoria Ford coach Glen Fromwiller, whose team — with many of the same players — had not played since May 23.

The Fishermen are scheduled to play a doubleheader Thursday at Warrenton. The Warriors' game Tuesday at Knappa was postponed.

Riverside hoops camp begins soon

Astoria's annual Riverside Basketball Camp is scheduled for June 25-29 at Astoria Middle School.

It is open to boys entering first grade to high school.

For first through sixth graders, it runs each day from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. Seventh grade to high school seniors will practice from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Cost is $30 (includes T-shirt), payable to AHS boys basketball. Registration takes place at the event. The camp is run by staff and players of Astoria High School.

For more information, call Astoria varsity coach Kevin Goin at 503-325-3911 (work) or 503-949-2810 (cell), or email kgoin@astoria.k12.or.us.

— The Daily Astorian

LEFT: Astoria's Lexis Law, last year's Cowapa League goalkeeper of the year, has signed to play soccer next fall at Multnomah University. RIGHT: Astoria senior volleyball player Emma Howard will take her game to South Puget Sound.

Astoria High School

Astoria's Law, Howard sign letters of intent

The Daily Astorian

Two more Astoria High School student-athletes have signed their names to letters of intent, announced last week.

Senior Lexis Law has signed to play soccer at Multnomah University next fall, and Emma Howard will play volleyball at South Puget Sound Community College.

Law was selected as the Cowapa League's goalkeeper of the year last fall, while Howard was honorable mention on the Cowapa all-league team last season as a libero.

Recent letter-of-intent signees from local schools:

Michell Arney, Warrenton (Mt. Hood volleyball)

Eliza Bannister, Ilwaco (Saint Martin's track/cross country)

Tim Barnett, Astoria (Oregon Tech track)

Niqui Blodgett, Warrenton (George Fox softball)

Reuben Cruz, Knappa (Linn-Benton baseball)

Darian Hageman, Astoria (Oregon State track)

Trey Hageman, Astoria (Linn-Benton baseball)

Emma Howard, Astoria (South Puget Sound volleyball)

Madeline Jacobson, Ilwaco (Lower Columbia basketball)

Makenzie Kaech, Ilwaco (Saint Martin's basketball)

Jackson Kunde, Seaside (SW Oregon golf)

Madison Landwehr, Astoria (Clackamas volleyball)

Lexis Law, Astoria (Multnomah soccer)

Kaleb Miller, Knappa (Clark baseball)

Dale Takalo, Knappa (Blue Mountain baseball)

Trout hits 2 HRs again, M's belt 4 in 6-3 win vs Angels

SEATTLE — When Mike Trout gets on a power-hitting hot streak like this, it's hard for other teams to watch — and match.

The Seattle Mariners have been doing just fine the past two games going toe-to-toe with the Los Angeles Angels slugger.

Mitch Haniger and Ryon Healy each homered twice as the first-place Mariners shook off two homers by Trout for the second consecutive night, beating the Angels 6-3 on Tuesday.

Trout took sole possession of the major league lead with 23 home runs. He also hit a pair in the Angels' 5-3 loss Monday and has 20 career homers at Safeco Field, most in any visiting ballpark.

Thomas absent from Seahawks minicamp

RENTON, Wash. — Seattle Seahawks free safety Earl Thomas officially commenced his holdout as the team began its three-day mandatory minicamp Tuesday.

Thomas released a statement on Twitter on Sunday announcing his intention to skip the minicamp and all team-related activities until his contract situation is resolved.

"Kind of had heard that he was making that choice," head coach Pete Carroll said. "I wish he was here. That would be nice. But we're focusing on the guys that are here and we'll see how that goes."

Thomas is entering the final year of a four-year extension signed prior to the 2014 season. He is scheduled to make $8.5 million in base salary in 2018.

— Associated Press

We're open!
Order online. Pickup curbside.

Pickup Save time with free grocery pickup.
Order online at walmart.com/grocery

Hwy 101 and SE Ensign Lane
1791 SE Ensign Lane
Warrenton, OR | 97146

Walmart