

Registration is open for Camp Kick-A-Lot

The Daily Astorian

WARRENTON — It's time to sign the kids up for Camp Kick-A-Lot at the Warrenton Soccer Complex, 1100 N.W. Ridge Road in Warrenton. The camp is a unique opportunity for kids entering first through eighth grades to learn about soccer, practice skills, dress up in costumes and have a lot of fun.

"It's all about the kids," camp director Justin Gagnon said. That was Jerry Boisvert's motto when he started the camp 22 years ago. Gagnon plans to carry on the tradition and honor the legacy of Boisvert, who died in January.

There are two sessions. Session 1 is from 2 to 5 p.m. July 16 to 20; Session 2 is from 4 to 7 p.m. July 23 to 27. Registration is $75 for one session, or $120 for both sessions until June 30. After June 30, registration is $90 for one session and $135 for both. Scholarships are available for those in need.

Campers receive a soccer ball, enjoy a different theme each day, learn the fundamentals of soccer and interact with energetic counselors. To register for Camp Kick-A-Lot, go to bit.ly/lcysa

Camp Kick-A-Lot is sponsored by the nonprofit Lower Columbia Soccer Association. Registration for fall soccer is also open. For information, see lcysasoccer.com

Amateur radio club event set for Saturday in Gearhart

The Daily Astorian

GEARHART — The Sunset Empire Amateur Radio Club and the city of Gearhart are presenting an Emergency Communications Outreach and Field Day from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday at the corner of Pacific Way and North Marion Avenue in downtown Gearhart.

The event includes a day of games, food, fun and special activities for children and adults. Everyone has a chance to talk on the radio to other local and foreign amateur radio operators, see operational displays of different types of emergency radio gear and participate in events emphasizing family and personal emergency preparedness.

Try tapping out a name in Morse code, or sending a name in Morse code by bouncing up and down on the specially constructed "toilet seat" that is connected to a Morse code key, or sending Morse code with a foot. Children can have fun with the Morse code scavenger hunt.

Sponsors of the event include the Clatsop County Emergency Management Division, the Astoria Lions Club, Ham Radio Outlet and many others.

For information, contact Dana Gandy at 971-601-0283.

Oregon State Grange Convention comes to Clatsop County

The Daily Astorian

The Oregon State Grange will visit the Astoria area for its 145th annual State Convention June 23 to 28 at the Clatsop County Fairgrounds. Talent, Public Speaking and Jeopardy contests are at 7 p.m. Saturday. The Talent contest includes vocal, instrumental and variety acts by adults, youth (ages 14 to 35) and juniors (ages 5-14). This free event is open to the public.

Entries in photography, art, baking, canning, crafts, textiles and more than 100 different contests will be on display from Monday morning through Wednesday evening. Local members will enter or help judge these contests.

Angora Hiking Club gets jump on centennial celebration

The Daily Astorian

The Angora Hiking Club, founded on the summit of Saddle Mountain, is 100 years old, July 4, 2020. To get the party started two years early, club members will take part in the Warrenton Fourth of July parade. Members plan to walk in 1920s hiking dress, and Mike Brewer, in his vintage 1920s auto, will join the walkers.

To get the centennial fun started, and get into shape, all are welcome to join the club's annual Phyllis Dubb Memorial Flower Climb of Saddle Mountain on Saturday, led by second generation Angora hike leader, Michael Dubb. The group meets at 10 a.m. at the trailhead.

For information, call Michael Dubb at 503-791-5325 or go to angorahikingclub.org, where the complete 2018 hiking schedule is available.
