

Journalists win regional SPJ awards

The Daily Astorian

Journalists for The Daily Astorian and its sister newspapers took home several awards from the Region 10 Society of Professional Journalists contest.

They competed in the small newspaper division (newsrooms with 15 people or less), featuring the best work from print and online publications in Oregon, Washington state, Alaska, Idaho and Montana. Winners were announced Thursday night in Portland.

Brenna Visser of The Daily Astorian and Cannon Beach Gazette won first place for spot news reporting, for a story about a dog rescued from a cliff at Ecola State Park.

Natalie St. John of the Chinook Observer won first place for best photo portfolio and was a runner-up in column writing for her regular "Hearthfire & Brimstone" cooking column.

Luke Whittaker of the Chinook Observer won first place in spot news photography, for a story about a charter skipper and crew rescuing a trio off Cape Disappointment.

Edward Stratton of The Daily Astorian was a runner-up in short-form feature news reporting, for a story about an Astoria boy receiving a 3-D-printed prosthetic arm.

The Daily Astorian's "Mouth of the Columbia" restaurant reviews were a runner-up for best column.

"These journalists work hard to cover news in their communities every day," said Jim Van Nostrand, editor of The Daily Astorian. "We could not be more proud of them."

ON THE RECORD

Robbery

At 1:30 p.m. Thursday, Zane Belshe, 56, was arrested by Warrenton police on Second Street and Marlin Avenue and charged with second-degree robbery, menacing, third-degree theft and disorderly conduct. Belshe allegedly stole $95 worth of property from Fred Meyer. After an employee confronted him, he allegedly said he had a gun and threatened to shoot people in the store. He fled the scene and was arrested minutes later. While witnesses initially reported that Belshe pulled a gun out near the gas pumps, police did not locate one.

Donna Lee Buzzard

Gearhart

Aug. 11, 1933 — June 16, 2018

Donna Lee Buzzard was born in Jerome, Pennsylvania, to Herman and Kathlyn Driggs. She passed away peacefully at her daughter's home on June 16, 2018.

Donna met her future husband, Robert Dow Buzzard Jr., at Academy High School in Erie, Pennsylvania, in the eighth grade. After graduating as a teacher from Eastern Nazarene College in 1955, she and Bob were married.

As a Navy wife, Donna spent the next 26 years in 24 different tours, quickly making every house a home for her family of six. They retired in 1984 to Gearhart, Oregon, their 24th home, and it certainly was one of her favorites.

Keeping the home fires burning while Bob was away was only a part of her life. She was an artist, a published author, and one of the best bread bakers around, always sharing her artistic loaves with many in the community. Fresh bread would arrive on doorsteps when new babies arrived, or sad news visited a neighbor.

Donna was always community-minded. She got involved, and made a big impact, even though tours were typically only 18 months. She established a joint annual art show in Scotland with local residents and Navy wives, as well as painting wall murals at her daughter's elementary school in Virginia.

Once she moved to Oregon, she volunteered for the hospice program in Clatsop County, and became active in the Clatsop Community College Exploring New Concepts of Retirement Education (ENCORE) program. In her later years, she found great joy in playing the ukulele with the North Coast Strummers, and filling her leisure time quilting. Like her bread, the whimsical quilts found their way to many delighted recipients. Undoubtedly, some of her happiest times were spent with her grandchildren, Colton and Maggie.

Donna is survived by her four children, Tara Lee Sinclair of Warrenton, Oregon, Robin Buzzard Cavendish (Fred) of Banks, Oregon, Robert Dow Buzzard III (Marie) of Chesapeake, Virginia, and Dawn Heather Buzzard of Gearhart, Oregon; two grandchildren, Colton Robert Cavendish of Banks, Oregon, and Margaret Flora Blaser of Gearhart, Oregon; and her brother, Gary Driggs (Jan) of Spartansburg, Pennsylvania.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Bob, in 1997; son-in-law, Stuart Sinclair, in 2012; and her brother, Larry Driggs, in 2017.

She lived life gracefully, helped others cheerfully, and was truly loved by all.

Lola W. Jones

Astoria

Nov. 17, 1932 — June 19, 2018

Lola Essiemae Jones, born Nov. 17, 1932, in Lumber City, Georgia, passed away with loving family members by her side on June 19, 2018, in Astoria, Oregon. Lola was preceded in death and daughter-in law, Esther Jones; daughter, Pamela and son-in-law, Greg Hitchman; daughter, Peggy Church; and nephew, Newel Sandiford and his wife, June. Grandchildren include Jason Jones and family, Shannon Roberson-Karna and family, and Jennifer Rizzi and family; 11 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

Raised in Lumber City by her parents, Oscar and Viola White, she was the sixth child of seven, and excelled in sports, including being an all-star on her high school basketball team.

Lola enjoyed a varied professional life including bookkeeping, real estate and telephone operation in the great state of Texas. Another one of Lola's favorite things to do was traveling with her husband during a successful family-owned commercial fishing career.

Her greatest joy was being with her family and friends in the commercial fishing industry, even though they were all over the southern part of the U.S. and Alaska. Lola also enjoyed fish and shrimp dinners, gatherings on boats with other fishing families, and loved donating her time to the Fisherman's Wives' Club. Her favorite holiday was Christmas, and how it would bring her beloved family together.

Her beautiful life will forever be cherished in the lives of her children: son, Chuck,

The family would like to thank dedicated and compassionate individuals at Clatsop Care Center in Astoria, as well as Dr. Kevin Baxter. The family would also like to thank the wonderful people at hospice, as their care and compassion didn't stop at Lola, but also extended many times to her loving family.

A viewing will be today, June 22, at Caldwell's Mortuary, 1165 Franklin Ave., Astoria, Oregon, from 5 to 7 p.m.

A celebration of life will be held at Lewis and Clark Bible Church, 35082 Seppa Road, Astoria, Oregon, on Saturday, June 23 at 11 a.m.

Flowers can be delivered to Cadwell's during the public viewing, or in lieu of flowers a donation can be made to the local hospice and or Clatsop Care Center.

Caldwell's Luce-Layton mortuary is in charge of the arrangements. Please sign our online guest book at caldwellsmortuary.com

John Marshall Norling

Seaside

Sept. 1, 1950 — June 1, 2018

John Marshall Norling passed away peacefully in Portland, Oregon, on Saturday, June 1, 2018, at the age of 67, with the love of his life, Elaine, by his side.

John was born in Seaside on Sept. 1, 1950, and called it his home all of his life.

If you didn't have the opportunity to know John, and for many of you locally who did, it was his gentle nature and his kindness that would draw you to him. Once there, he could slip in his beautiful sense of humor, and have you laughing right along. A friend for life.

John was a talented finish carpenter. He built the home that he and Elaine have shared together in Seaside for the past 17 years. Working in the trade was his passion and his joy until his retirement five years ago. He loved to take things apart, repair them, and put them back together. A "fixer" from the gate!

He loved spending time with his wife, Elaine, and taking their dogs to run on the beach. He met Elaine Harding in 1986, and the two of them fell deeply in love, and married in January 1988.

John is survived by his wife, Elaine Nor-ling; stepdaughter and daughter-in-law, Melissa Harding-Lupo and Stacie Lupo; brother and sister-in-law, Jim and Alison Norling; sister-in-law, Kathleen Murphy; nieces, Stacey Norling, Katie Norling, Carrie Parma-Collier and Kim Fragnelli; nephews, Justin Fine and Josh Fine and his wife Kathleen Fine; and dear friends, Robin Laughlin and Kathy Malin.

John is preceded in death by his father, Henry Norling; his mother, Catharine Norling; his stepson, Matthew Harding; and older sister, Linda Norling.

A memorial service will be held on Monday, June 25, at noon, at Calvary Episcopal Church, 503 N. Holladay Drive in Seaside.

Contributions in his memory may be made to the Clatsop Animal Shelter, 1315 SE 19th St., Warrenton, OR 97146.

His family would like to thank Pam and Brian Dutton of Ocean View Funeral & Cremation Service for their kind, compassionate and personal care. They are deeply appreciated by the Norling family.
